Baronial At Home
 Baroness Johanna's Abode
 9821 Hedin Dr. Silver Spring, MD 20903

Monthly Barony Meeting
 Baroness Brenna's Abode
 600 Cedar St, NW Washington, DC 20012

To all those who hear my words, to the borders of Storvik, and beyond, Warm Greetings from Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik,

I have received Gracious words from our Fair Queen Emer, that she and King Anton do command me to continue to hold the Baronial lands of Storvik for Them and Their Heirs. I am grateful for this trust, and am Honor bound to serve them and Storvik to the best of my abilities.

By the time this missive finds you, Coronation will be upon us. So many people have and will work on this event, and I do thank you, and in particular, Dame Brenna, thank you! - for the amount of time you have devoted to making this event special for Their Highnesses, and for us all.

Time is fleeting... winter is giving way to the Spring Tourney season. Many events are coming up in the next few months. After Coronation has passed, some of the events I plan on attending are - Bright Hills Investiture, Crown Tournament, and Atlantian Twentieth Year Celebration. Please check your calendars, and see if you can join me in attending these events.

I wish to announce that I am changing the evenings that I shall be 'at home' to the fourth Friday of the month, starting in April. Those evenings, for your calendars, that will be April 27, May 25, June 22, and July 27, and August 24. I hope you can join me for some an evening of companionship, and perhaps, to work on some of those projects that we always _mean_ to get around to doing.

Until we meet again, I remain yours, in Service to Storvik, and Atlantia -

Johanna

Barony Meeting Minutes—March 11

Attending Citizens of Storvik—

Gauss Magnusson, Brenna of Storvik, Perrin, Moirin Fionn, Orlaith of Storvik, Stefan of Cambion, Heather Petrucelli, Steve Petrucelli, Nina of the Lost Caverns, Rachael bat Benjamin, David ben Mordechai, Johanna, Creirwy Aine du Oin Avon

Baroness: Sends her regrets, but must be elsewhere this evening.

Officer Reports—

Baroness: The Princess suggested that groups make "Pilgrim's Badges". Johanna will look into exactly what/how much work this will involve. Atlantian 20th Year Celebration is looking for nominations for the best cooks from each local group to potentially participate in cooking at 20th Year. Bright Hills will be investing a new baron in April.

Seneschal: We recently had a Baronial Vote of Confidence on Johanna continuing as Baroness. Since neither the seneschal or Baroness has heard anything about the results of the polling from the Crown, we assume that the polling was positive and Johanna will be continuing as Baroness for at least the next 2 years. (Confirmed! See Baroness' letter, page 3!)

Arts & Sciences: We watched the new 2 hour SCA documentary "In Service to the Dream" at the March A&S Night. The topic for the April A&S is "Leather Sewing", especially the techniques required for shoe making. There will be A&S displays at Coronation, please participate. Used MAPP gas containers (MAPP gas is a torch fuel often used in lampwork) can be disposed of/recycled during the Household Hazardous Waste Collection events sponsored by most of the local county/district governments. Montgomery County is doing one March 31st.

Chatelaine: Getting many e-mails from new folks; we have 3 new folks attending this meeting: Heather & Steve Petrucelli and Cara Godel, please make them welcome. We are doing a demo (together with Ponte Alto) Saturday evening March 31st at 7:30, at Oaktown High School near Vienna. Contact Nina for more info. We are also seriously considering doing a demo Saturday afternoon, April 21st, at Georgetown University as part of their Medieval Fest. This function is sponsored by the newly formed Georgetown Medieval Club in conjunction with Georgetown's Medieval Studies Department. We will make a final decision at the next Barony Meeting..

Chronicler: (Absent; probably ashamed to show his face)

Knight Marshall: Fighter Practice is currently being well attended. A new Donation Jar at the "troll" table at fighter practice is beginning to attract donations to help cover the cost of the site. Perrin, Pierce & Kara attended Southern Regional Fighting Practice last weekend and much violence (and bruises) was had by all.

Minister of the Lists: New list rules (including the fact that membership is no longer required to fight) take effect 5/1/2001.

Officers' Reports (Continued)—

Archery Marshall: Storvik's archers will participate in Robbery Mill's archery practice near Rockville on Sunday mornings from 10am to noon, due to the very nice facilities that they have. Therefore the practice on Sunday afternoons at the Adelphi Rd. range is canceled until further notice.

New Business—

(None)

Old Business—

Financial Committee—We are still finalizing the exact numbers, but have noticed a few trends: (1) The average event seems to make between $50 and $200 profit. Occasionally we make more and occasionally we make less (or very rarely a loss), but most events fall in this range. This means Storvik has been making a total of about $1000.00 total profit from all the events each year for the last several years. (2) Storvik has been spending about $500 on misc. minor operating expenses and about $1000-1500 in special projects each year for the last several years. (3) This means that even though most events are making a profit, we are still spending about $1000 more each year than we make. So over the last 3-4 years, we have spent almost all of the $4000 balance we had in the bank four years ago. Thus the need to raise more money for the Barony. (4) Several ideas for raising money are being pursued in parallel, including the Donation Jar at fighter practice, collecting items for a charity auction, and raising event registration fees.

Storvik Baronial Encampment at Pennsic XXX—There does seem to be sufficient interest to have an encampment at Pennsic, so the Barony agreed to do this. Over the next month we need to decide on which blocks of land to request, what sort of arrangements we want to make for food & other group services, and the logistics necessary to make all of this happen. Many final decisions on these issues will be made at the next Barony Meeting.

Upcoming Events—

Coronation—Most of the main organizational positions have been assigned, but people are always needed for cleanup. Folks are coming over to Brenna's on Tues. 3/13 and many Thurs. evenings thereafter to work on stuff. Call Brenna if you have any questions or want to help.chairs. Feast (1 remove) begins 6:30pm; we will investigate as to the need for a Head Table.

Barony Meeting Minutes—March 11 (Continued)

Overheard and Unattributed (to protect the guilty)—

“Brenna, you weren't loud enough...”

“I was highly entertained to see Glamor skipping!”

The Ladies of the Rose will sponsor a melee prize tournament for the heavy list to raise monies for the Their Majesties. The format of the tourney will consist of a three or five man heavy team tournament (size of the team depending on the level of participation). The populace can support their teams by bidding (donating money) that their team will overtake all others. The bidders, based on where their team placed in the tourney, will get to choose from a wide array of wonderful prizes donated by the Ladies of the Rose.
