The Chronicler desperately seeks Artwork (See above folks we aren't kidding), Line drawings, Calligraphy, and Illumination for use in the Drekkar. Please contact Duncan at 301-559-5659 if you would like to have your work published in Drekkar.

Artwork is a different story entirely. I will gladly take any artwork in what ever format given (color does not reproduce well). I ask (no beg) for more artwork, especially border illumination and small ink line drawings. I am specifically looking for art that can be documented as a period style, for such work I will include the documentation in the credits of that issue of the Drekkar.

I will take submissions for the Drekkar in almost any format you can give. I confess to bad memory and weak fingers though. Therefore verbal submissions are VERY unreliable, and hardcopy will be subjected to lots of editing. My tired fingers prefer text in any type of electronic media you can give me. My system can read LOW density PC disks, Atari disks, Amiga disks, C64 and C128 disks (either 5.25 or 3.5). It can also receive text from any system via telephone lines. If at all possible, save your files as text only before sending them to me. I'll also take email at: "snolan@pafosul.hq.af.mil". All text printed in the Drekkar will be published electronically except calligraphy and submitters making very special arrangements.

Northern Location: At the home of Lord Beornheard of Wearmouth, 3603 Oliver Street, Hyattsville, Maryland (301-559-7852).

From the Capitol Beltway (I-495): Take New Hampshire Avenue South to Adelphi Road. Go left onto Adelphi. After several miles, you will come to Route 410 (East-West Highway). Get in the right-hand lane, and cross over 410 onto Queens Chapel Road. Go through the light at the top of the hill, and make the next right onto Oliver Street.

From The City: Take North Capitol Street to Michigan Avenue. (Look for the signs to Providence Hospital and the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception). Turn right onto Michigan. It will become Queens Chapel Rd when it leaves the District. Oliver street is approx. 5.4 miles from the intersection of North Capitol and Michigan. You will eventually pass through a shopping district (a shopping center, gas stations, a Pizza Hut, etc). Queens chapel road then goes up a very noticeable hill. Oliver street is on the other side of the hill, at the bottom, on the left. If you reach Route 410 (East-West Highway), you have gone too far. If so, cross 410, turn around, and follow the 'from the Capital Beltway' directions above.

Shakespeare's Birthday Feast and Revel

On April 11, 1992, the Incipient Canton of Wrattingham Lynn and the Barony of Storvik invite all Players, Thespians, and Groundlings to a Celebration in Honor of the Poet and Playwright, William Shakespeare. Merriment and Wit shall abound, for the day shall be punctuated with Performances from Various Works of the Illustrious Playwright and his contemporaries. All who attend are invited to prepare Performances of their favorite Scenes, Dialogue or Soliloquies and perform them for the Populace. Memorization is not required, but Appropriate Costumes and Props are shamelessly encouraged. Aspiring Thespians are encouraged to check ahead with the autocrat, Lady Johanna, to ensure that not every Player has chosen to perform the same scene. Originality and Authenticity of Performance (in the Elizabethan Tradition) are both to be encouraged. For those who have not time to prepare themselves in Advance, a number of short scenes will be available for Impromptu Performances upon the Stage. And if the mere thought of performing before an audience chills your blood, be not dismayed; spectators are also more than welcome. To further Enliven the Day, there shall also be in the afternoon Workshops on Topics of Interest (yet to be determined), Dancing, and Various Contests and Competitions, including one on Elizabethan Sonnets, and others (Best Death, Best Mad Scene, Best Soliloquy, Best Use of Props....) as announced.

To prevent any of the Players or Spectators from expiring from hunger, a Feast of Various and Sundry Dishes inspired by the Plays shall be served, prepared with stentorian care by Baron Igor. Facilities will also be available for small children but parents must reserve with the Autocrat in Advance.

Costs for the Event, including Admission to All Performances, will be $10 until April 1st, and $12 thereafter. Children under Twelve shall be half-price. Cheques should be made payable to The Barony of Storvik, SCA, Inc. and mailed to:

Brush Up Your Shakespeare!

For those who are (and even those who aren't) thinking about attending and/or performing in the Shakespeare's Birthday Feast and Revel, but would like some refresher courses, a PRE-REVEL of videos and other assorted Shakespearean Nunsuch is planned for sometime between now and then. So for those of you who would be interested in a review course, or just a chance to see Romeo and Juliet, Henry V, MacBeth, Hamlet, (or even Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead) or sit around and read through the plays looking for the "good stuff", contact Lady Johanna (Janet Trautvetter, (301) 731-0673) or Lady Myfanwy (Mouse, (301)270-5761), and we'll plot something. Of course, anyone wishing to host a Shakespearean PRE-REVEL for either videos or impromptu rehearsals of stuff to do at the EVENT, feel free to call, too.

SCA Board of Directors Meeting in Storvik

The Board of Directors of the Society for Creative Anachronism will be holding its April quarterly meeting in the Barony of Storvik. This is a rare opportunity to see firsthand how the whole international organization is run. The Board only meets four times a year, usually in California. April will only be the second time in 25 years that they have met in this area.

The meeting itself will be Sunday, April 26, 1992, at 10:00 a.m. in the New Carrollton, Md., City Hall. It holds 300 and is conveniently located about a mile from the Washington Beltway (Route 495). Take Route 450 East (Exit 20A) and immediately get in the two left lanes to turn left at the intersection onto Princess Garden Parkway. The City Hall is a few blocks ahead on the left in a brick building. No reservations or garb are necessary. Lunch will be available.

On Saturday evening, April 25, 1992, the Barony of Storvik will host a feast for all, with dancing afterwards. This will be a chance to meet the Directors informally, all of whom have a great deal of experience in the Society. During the day in the feast hall, there will be a display of items showing how we arrived at A.S. XXVI, with 20,000 members and 12 kingdoms, such as old newsletters, maps, artifacts, and photos. Those attending are encouraged to bring anything they may have of a similar nature. Dancing is also likely to occur in the afternoon as well. The hall will open at 2:30 with the feast at 6:30. Feast site is Christ Congregational Church, 9525 Colesville Rd., Silver Spring, MD. From the Washington Beltway (Route 495), take Colesville Road South (Exit 30B). The church is two blocks on the left.

Reservations for the feast are $10.00 until April 15th, $11.00 thereafter if available, payable to "Barony of Storvik/SCA Inc." Crash space is available. Send to the Autocrat:

Performer's Revel - West

For all the performers/would-be performers out there, it is the Performer's Revel West, which is a direct steal of the Performer's Revel held by Mistress Fevronia and Master Igor. This authorized copy is at the home of James of Rutland and Daniel of Rutland, in Highland Foorde (near Brunswick, MD). It's basically a day-long bardic circle with a feast, from noon until the last one leaves/crashes. Part of the admission fee is, in fact, at least one performance from each reveller-- be it song, story, a reading of prose or poetry (yes, it need not be memorized) or a dramatic performance (Did you learn anything for the Shakespeare event?). Newcomers are especially welcome.

Master Igor Bear has agreed to cook the feast (I told you this was an authorized copy!). Because we are vegetarian and keep kosher at our house, the feast will be ovo-lacto-vegetarian; and do not bring feast gear-- we are importing platters of papyrus from Egypt to add an exotic note. The site is wet, wet, wet, but we reserve the right to take away your car keys if...

Several notes of interest; wear field garb, weather permitting, we will be out on the lawn under the sycamores enjoying the breezes and a view that includes two kingdoms until dinner.

Parents of smalls should be aware that it may be tedious for them to stay quiet during performances, and should plan accordingly. There will be a room set aside for their use.

For the allergic: We keep four cats, but the little darlings will be locked in the basement for the duration.

For those who wish to crash, certainly!

The event starts at noon of Saturday, May 16th. Coming early, no problem; not reserving early, BIG problem! We will take a total of only 25 reservations. The fee will be $8.00.

Reservations should be sent to James of Rutland, c/o James Dronenburg, 3536 Cemetery Circle, Knoxville, Maryland 21758. For further information, and directions to the site, please call us at 301-834-6515.

With a flourish of trumpets, the Barony of Ponte Alto proudly invites all Atlantia to join us as we revel in the spring air among contests and exhibition of skill at:

There will be games of chance, games of skill, foot races for all of nimble leg, an open arts and sciences competition for all who would enter one item of their work for judging by Atlantian A&S standards. As a separate competition, there will be special prize given to the gentle whose creativity yields the nicest item using flowers, either as theme or main ingredient. Items need not be documented, but should be period in style and can be crafted from any medium. The competition is intended to be fun (but not silly) and judges will look for originality. There will be activities for younger lords and ladies, dancing throughout the day, a tournament open to all heavy weapons fighters from whom the Ponte Alto Champion of the Field will be chosen, and stalls from which one may purchase fine goods and tempting foods for lunch.

The highlight of the day will be a race such as our cousins in Siena hold twice yearly. A Palio - a horserace! We challenge all our friends of Atlantia; the baronies & their cantons, the Shires & Colleges, the households, guilds and all interested gentles to bring forth their beasts such as graced the royal camp last Pennsic. Hobbyhorses such as can only be bred in the verdant pastures of Atlantia. Bard your steeds in their finest colors and let them compete not only for the honor of winning the Palio, but for special awards for their trappings.

In the evening, our baron and baroness will preside over a high table of champions to celebrate the victories of the day. We will tempt the palate and please the eye with a repast of delicacies prepared with skill and flair. After the meal, there will be yet more dancing to round out the day.

The fees for A Day at the Races are:
postmarked by April 30th, $10 on board, $5 off board postmarked by May 10th, $12.00 on board, $5 off board
After May 10th only off board reservations at a fee of $6 will be accepted (you may negotiate with the autocrat at that time but you'd better have a good story)...

Non-SCA members should include an additional $1.
Gentles under the age of 10 enjoy half prices, those under 5 are guests of the Barony, but they must be mentioned by reservation.

A full schedule of the day's activities, site directions, and other basic information will appear in the next announcement, and will be sent to all who reserve as confirmation. Please make checks payable to the "Barony of Ponte Alto/SCA Inc" and send reservations to the autocrat, Baronessa Ilaria Aldobrandini, via Becky King, 7135 Leesburg Pike, Falls Church, VA 22043, 703-533-8224 (no phone reservations please).

GARB WARS

My Dearest Cousin,

I have received an invitation to the most peculiar war - Garb Wars. It will take place on May 15, 16 & 17 in the Bright Hills. This war is a garb construction competition. My ladies are most excited. It is said diverse classes and workshops will be held. I wonder if stitchery will be taught. My Lord is pleased as he will be able to take the fighters to the workshops in archery, heavy weapons and rapier. Those who have not yet had the chance to authorize in rapier and heavy weapons will be able to do so there. And, Cousin, I am told the rapier workshop will be conducted by none other than the first Queen's Champion of Rapier in the kingdom. My son is skilled. He so looks forward to the day he can fight for the Queen's honor. Of course they will have an area for children's activities so we will be able to concentrate on our gorgeous creations while the young ones play. Oh, and I almost forgot, bring your falcons and dogs as they will be most welcome.

Feasting and revelry is to follow the day's activities, as it always does at an event such as this. Be sure to bring some of your wonderful meade and wine as the site is wet!

Camping space abounds. for those who are less inclined to the rigours of the wilds bedding space is available. And, Cousin, they have a wonderous thing at this event, HOT SHOWERS! Can your imagine! Aren't our times of invention wonderful!

Gather your ladies, Cousin, and meet with me at 6 in the evening on May 15 when the site opens. There we shall meet on our field of battle to determine which of us can construct the best garb!

Cost:

Until May 1: $15 on board; $7 off board

After May 1: $18 on board; $9 off board

Children 6-12, half price; children under 6 are guest of the Shire.

Games Tournay VIII & Night on the Towne II

To those of you who enjoy Persona Events, Isenfir will be putting on another "Muse of Fire" event May 30. We will, again, attempt to recreate a day and evening in the Elizabethan Shipping port of Oxwich on Plain. We ask your help in fleshing that out with material props, the limitless power of your own imagination, and your sense of play.

The town of Oxwich-on Plain will host a Grand Summer Faire, that day, with (Isenfir's traditional) Games Tournay as its centerpiece. Criminal court will be in session as needed. There will be a bad side of town, where wise men keep one hand on their sword and the other on their pouch. We plan two taverns, one uptown and one in the slums. Other plans include a gambling parlor, a brothel, shipping docks, municipal guardsmen, diverse store fronts, a parish chapel, and whatever else we or you can think of and implement.

This is your chance to live, for a short while, in a "good parts" version of Elizabeth's England. Make a wish: if you can think of it and we can make it fit, we will. Rescue a lady, spy on the English, beg for your lunch, seek revenge, die gallantly. We need minstrels, beggars, drunks, peddlers, thieves, gamblers, merchants, craftsmen, servants sailors, prostitutes, soldiers, faire hucksters, a theatre troop, acrobats, jugglers, and dozens more. Few of the jobs are filled or even fully defined yet. Contact me now and tell me what part you (and your friends) want to play so we can plan for it.

We will be supporting rapier combat in the street and MAYBE a tavern brawl. Duellists, your enjoyment will be greatly enhanced if you rig your gear for quick response, you can't rescue the damsel in distress if you have to go fetch your sword first. You will need a scabbard for your foil. Get rid of your hood and replace it with skirting on your mask and a high collar. Wear or carry your gloves. Contrive to have your mask close to hand; perhaps a shoulder wallet.

As usual, you will be issued a pouch of Atlantian coins and a persona-level economy will be in place. Come set up shop and sell your wares for coin of the realm. Merchants selling period looking goods for mundane money are also welcome, There is no MUNDANE fee for merchenting but the town will tax you for persona money.
