UNTO THE PEOPLE OF THE BARONY OF STORVIK, GREETINGS FROM CORUN AND BRENNÄ

Investiture is over, and the exhaustion is beginning to wear off, at least for the time being. We said this during our first court, but it bears repeating. We are honoured by the show of confidence and the trust you have given us in electing us your Baron and Baroness. We both know that there will be lots of work ahead, and that Igor and Fevronia are a tough act to follow, but we promise you that we will do the best job we can for you, and always work in the best interests of the Barony. We hope to be the kind of leaders who will set forth an example that will be easy to follow.

We will be keeping an open door policy, as did our predecessors. We are there for you, and you need to know that. We will also be keeping the tradition of the Baronial At-Home, though we are cutting back to two nights a month, those being the first and third Tuesdays of the month (mundane obligations permitting of course). The At-Homes will be held at the Baron's house in Takoma Park, and will be from 7 to 9:00pm. All are encouraged to come by. The fourth Tuesday will probably still be the Storvik Music Night that Fevronia started, though we suspect it will be on hold until they have recovered from the move into the new house and have had a bit of time to go off by themselves for some needed R&R.

We wish to thank all of you who helped make our Investiture the special occasion it was. Kendrick Wayfarer and his crew put together a memorable experience, especially in light of this being Kendrick's first time as Autocrat, never an easy task at the best of times, and especially not with an event of this importance. Thank you Kendrick et. al.

He also gave us our first opportunity to do one of the things that makes the job of Baron and Baroness so pleasurable....handing out special thanks for a job done above and beyond the call of duty. This was given to Lady Johanna von Sudenborn, who had the unenviable task of rearranging seating arrangements for the feast, and smoothing ruffled feathers. Our thanks again, Johanna.

Thanks to (now) Lady Felicia and the musicians who came from around the kingdom to perform for us. Music doth have charm, and you have indeed charmed us. Know that you are always welcome in Storvik.

Sir Velodia was most gracious to put together the Cambion Choir on such short notice to sing Igor and Fevronia, and us into our respective courts. Thank you Velodia, and thanks to those who lent their voices. It was beautiful.

We also wish to give a Very Special Thank You to Mistress Keilyn Fitzwarin, Mistress Deirdre O'Siodhachain, Elizabeth MacAllister, Denise Clearwater, Reynard of Lochmere,

This is the Drekkar, published by and for the members of the Barony of Storvik in the Society for Creative Anachronisms, Inc. (SCA). The Drekkar is not a corporate publication of the SCA, and does not delineate SCA policies. Any opinions expressed herein are entirely those of the authors. Except where otherwise stated, items published in the Drekkar may be reprinted without special permission in newsletters and other publications of branches of the SCA. Reprints must present the text as originally presented, in its entirety, with proper credit to author and source. Authors not wishing to allow reprints of their articles may so indicate at the time of submission.

Diana of Lochmere, Aryanna Hawkyns, Siobhan O' Riordan, Jonathon Ryder, and Cellynen of Stow-in-the-Wold, all of whom prepared the marvelous feast. You are all to be commended for your hard work and your skill. Such a wonderful repast could not have come off without your help.

And last, but certainly not the least, there was the clean up crew; Susannah Grey, Isobel Biconyll, Hrodberth, Erica, Daria, Fevronia Murometsa (who is supposed to be on vacation now), Lilliane d' Alezande, and those members of the Cooking Team who also stayed. You're the ones who help us keep those nifty event sites by making them cleaner than they were when we got in. Thank you.

In closing the Thanks Dept., we wish to thank all of you who attended. We are honoured by the tremendous turnout, and were glad to have shared the experience with so many of our friends and neighbors. We look forward to attending many more events with you.

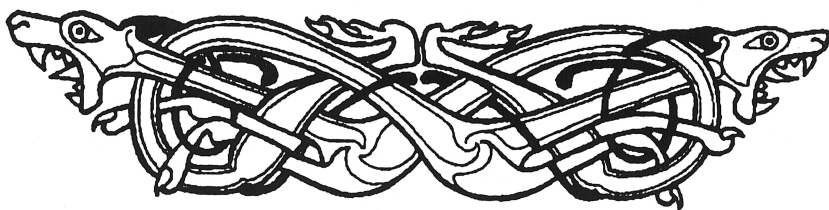

Lastly, an announcement we forgot to make during court. There were some sheets on a side table intended to get a complete listing of the members of the Baronial Orders, those being the Order of the Lozulet, and the Order of Faering. Not only did we forget to mention this, we forgot to pick the sheets up at the end of the evening. They say memory's the second thing to go, I forget what the first is. Anyway, if the members of those orders would please let us know who you are, we would like to have complete lists, as none have yet been compiled.

It feels like there is still so much to say. We're sure it will come to us eventually. We hope we haven't left anyone off the Thank You List. If we have, we apologize, and will rectify the unintended slight at a later date. Our profound thanks again to one and all. It will be both our pleasure and our honour to serve the Barony of Storvik.

In service,

CORUN

BRENNA

UNTO THE GOOD GENTLES OF STORVIK DOES LADY
CATRIONA BEANSHEINN SEND GREETINGS!

With this issue, I begin my journey as your Chronicler. The road to this printing was arduous and wrought with many technical difficulties. My deputy, Matt, can tell you of his valiant duels with the mysterious "magic boxes" that allow us to publish these pages. I thank the good Lord that he triumphed! (I am told that this will get easier as we go along.) Despite these challenges, as you can see, we were successful!

I wish to thank all of you who have given me offers of assistance, advice and general support as I assume this office. I would especially like to thank the following people: our former Chronicler, His Excellency, Baron Corun MacAnndra who gave me the push-off to get started and has assured me that he will be available should I ever get stuck; Her Excellency, Baroness Fevronia who has been very supportive and has offered her services as a deputy beginning next month; and my other deputy (yes, we are allowed more than one!), Matthaecus Blades who has proven himself triumphant in the battles with the "magic boxes" and has kept me from going insane...so far! There are many, many others--too numerous to name, but I thank you all!

If you have any suggestions for things you would like to see in the Drekkrar, or articles/announcements you would like included, please feel free to contact me or one of my deputies. Please keep in mind that if you e-mail something to me, you need to allow a minimum of two days for it to get to me if you send it through Internet. I can also receive e-mail through the private message conference on Matt's BBS, The Edge of Insanity. For more information, please give one of us a call. I am always willing to consider suggestions and hear comments, so please do not hesitate in contacting me.

In Service,
CATRIONA

The sixth ANNUAL LADY'S DAY TOURNEY

Dun Carraig

29 April 1995

The Barony of Dun Carraig invites all the gentles of Atlantia to come forth and help us celebrate the Faire of the Fair Sex on April 29, 1995 at our Sixth Annual Lady's Day Tourney. The site for this event is Christ Child Camp located on the banks of the Patuxent River in St. Leonard, Maryland.

The Heavy Weapon, Rapier and Archery tourneys will consist of three parts: the fighter/archer must compose an original poem or prosaic work extolling the virtues of the one for whom they compete; the tourney itself and the one being championed must create a favour for the fighter/archer (the favour cannot have been entered in a competition before). A winner will be chosen for each part, with the overall winning couples being based on the greatest number of points collected.

The Feast is being prepared by our own Lady Elewyiss the Jew, one of our Barony's finest cooks. A list of ingredients will be available for those with dietary concerns. If you have specific questions, please contact the Autocrat.

A&S Competition: In additions to the competitions for poetry and favours as listed above, there will be contests for the best accessory (hats, sleeves, handmade jewelry, etc.) and pottery.

The site will open at 10am and close at 11pm. Weapons inspections will take place at 11am, and the Tourneys will commence with the poetry recitation promptly at Noon. Their Excellencies will hold court at 5pm, the Feast will be at 6pm, and there will be dancing in the evening if time permits. Any musicians who wish to volunteer their services will be gratefully welcomed. Please take note that we have an enormous amount of land at the site for day pavilions--feel free to bring yours if you wish. The site is WET, but we will not have camping, so please exercise restraint.

Fees: Postmarked by April 15th, On-Board - $12; After April 16th, On-Board - $15; Daytrip - $6; Children under 12 are half-price. Non-members add $3 to all of the above prices.

The Feast Hall is strictly limited to 90, so everyone is encouraged to reserve early. Please remember that the only reservation is a paid reservation. Make all checks payable to "Barony of Dun Carraig/SCA, Inc." Send all checks, questions, comments, and offers of servitude to the Autocrat, Lady Isabeau Gower (Sharon M.
