Greetings and general salutation.

Spring is upon us and the lust for the outdoors is returning for us all. The bards and minstrels have kept us entertained through the harsh winter nights, the arts and science folks have dazzled us with their wondrous crafts, the cooks have done fantastic feats with the winter stores. Now it's time for the fighters, both heavy and light, to shed our heavy cloaks and return the favor and keep the populace entertained. To accomplish this we must PRACTICE our martial skills and hone them to perfection, to teach and learn more. It will also help reduce the winter stoutness that we all have built up from the feasting.

At present there are practices scheduled for almost every day of the week.

Monday : Storvik (TBA) *
Tuesday : Lochmere (Fort Meade MD)
Thursday : Roxbury Mill (Parkland M.S, Weaton MD)
Ponte Alto (George Mason U. NVA)
Friday : Bright Hills (Reistertown M.S. Reisterstown MD)
Sunday : Ponte Alto (Pimmit Hill Library NVA)

Since War season is around the corner, we have much to prepare for. There are regional war practices scheduled throughout the kingdom, some have passed others are being setup. So stay in touch with the fighters in the area and out for new regarding time and locations.

In service

Lord Oswulf

* Storvik is taking time off to travel to the other practices in an effort to broaden or skills.

Public Notices

The Sword & the Pen

The Folger theatre is presenting an exhibition highlighting some of the major developments in the history of swordplay over nearly three centuries, and it documents the close relationship of fencing to drama, spectacle, and dance. The exhibition runs through October 14th, Monday through Saturday from 10am - 4 p.m. The exhibition is free.

Yesterday's News

The Folger theatre presents 17th century English Broad-sides and Newsbooks. During the 17th century, England experienced an explosion of information as domestic news, in the form of printed pamphlets and broadsides, became more accessible to the general public. Chronicling everything from politics to the weather, touching on both the mundane and the macabre, these forerunners of modern print journalism offer an amusing and dramatic glimpse into the popular interests and headline making events of their day. This exhibit will be open from March 29 through late August, Monday through Saturday from 10 am - 4 p.m. The exhibit is free.

Sylvan Glen is putting on a Demo on the 13th of April. All fighters, dancers and musicians are invited. The demo is being held in War Memorial Park in Martinsburg, WV. There will be access to covered pavilions, picnic benches, and park grills. There will also be samples of medieval recipes for the public. The site is bone dry! The demo will begin at 12 noon and continue until dark. There will be a post revel at the autocrat's house. Please contact the autocrat, Istvan Dragosani (Brett W. McCoy) at 304-264-4698 (Home), 301-975-0111 (work) or bmeccoy@capaccess.org for more information.

Mistress Xiri is planning a road trip to Joy Trim in Delaware for the Saturday after Saint Guido. If you think you would like to go along, please contact her by Friday evening so that she knows who to expect. The caravan will leave her home early Saturday morning and stop at Joy Trim and some nento chocolate purveyor. Joy Trim expects CASH ONLY.

Printed 8:46p 4/8/96

Greetings unto the gentle folk of Storvik from Corun and Brenna,

Our apologies for there not being a letter from us in the March issue of the Drekkar. Apparently the email gods decided to eat it.

In the past month it was our pleasure to participate in our own "It's Never to Early for Love" event. Despite the weather's best attempt to keep us locked in our homes, many stalwart Storviki and friends attended in large numbers. We had a fine day of dancing, chivalry for the sake of Love, and wondrous feasting. We wish to thank Lord Beornherd for this fine event, as well as the cook, Lady Ayisha, the cook's staff, The House of the Drunken Badger, the decorating and cleaning crews, the WONDERFUL musicians, our fighters and our fool as well as all those who participated to make this an enjoyable day. Thanks also to Roxbury Mills for allowing us to use our old site within their lands.

We wish all of you to join us in welcoming our new Cousins, Ranulf and Caitlin, now Baron and Baroness of Ponte Alto, as they pick up the reins from Niall and Teleri, first Baron and Baroness of Ponte Alto. Their Investiture was a splendid event. We look forward to working with them and continuing the good will between our two Baronies.

As you may have heard, we have a site for Coronation! Our thanks to Lady Johanna, the autocrat (who will entertain all offers for help...). This will be on April 20, 1996, in Lochmere at the Ellicott City Armoury. There will be a fighting practice the next day. Anyone wishing to help out either at Coronation or the fighting practice should contact Lady Johanna von Sudenborn at 301-434-4414.

On May 17th, the Barony of Lochmere will be holding an event. There will be much fighting and many prizes, including two lovely Italian style folding chairs. Also, the famed Arrow of Lochmere will be shot for. Archers of Storvik should begin preparing for this event now. Lastly, Her Excellency has found a new place of residence. She can now be found at the following address and phone number;

600 Cedar Street, NW
 Washington, DC 20012

Minutes from Baronial Meeting on 3/10/96

Members in Attendance: Johanna, Brenna, Malcolm, Beornheord, Ayisha, Insha, Tehair, Hreodbeorth, Chabi, and Stefan.

OFFICER REPORTS

Senechal - Everything is going well,

Chatelaine - There was an impromptu newcomers meeting held at the Monday night fighter practice 3/4/96. Malcolm, Duke Richard, and Jaelle spoke upon the topic of Awards.

Herald - Nothing to Report.

Exchequer - Balance is $2336.25. There were some bounced checks from the last event. Would like officers to consider creating a list for autocrats of people whose checks we will not except. Suggest that the Drekkar consider accepting sponsorship of the exchange copies to offset cost.

Marshal - Fighter practice occurs when the weather is good. Sean received an award of excellence at the Feast of Ymir. Sean is sell blue and red copies of a sea horse (his award) to all fighters of Storvik for $1.00.

Chronicler - We are receiving 2-3 subscriptions a month now. At the request of the officers an accurate count of the exchange, complimentary, and regular subscriptions will be given at the next meeting. Will also try creating an event calendar for the Drekkar

Minister of the Lists - We have 18 current fighters and 9 inactive fighters who claim Storvik as their home group. The current printout is available. If there is a question of a fighters status, please contact the MOL. NOTE: A fighter may renew his card at any fighting event.

EVENT REPORT

CORONATION - Six paid reservations to date. Volunteers are needed: heralds, and assistant to the mistress of the list. Tehir volunteered to organize the children's activities. The Badgers have volunteered to stay with the tent the night before the event. The kingdom will be selling liquid refreshments as a fund raiser. The tentative budget is running at $1900.

DEMOS

MLK - Weapons will be stored in a service area behind the guards desk. Need photos of events, activities, etc. to use for Washington Post advertisement. The officers suggested that a Baronial scrapbook be created. A photo swap mewed was suggested.

3/24 Fighter Practice - The big Sunday practice is still scheduled. It will take place at The park in Riverdale. The park is near Charlie's house.

6/21 Schweinhaut Center - The demo promised as part of the site fee for Never To Early for Love is scheduled for 1 - 2 p.m. Suggested hands-on activities were needlepoint, calligraphy, card games, fashion show, and a lecture.

BARON'S CHAMPIONSHIP - Volunteers have been found to help with the feast, children's activities, and chiurgeon.

SAX & VIOLENCE - The event will begin with camping over Saturday night. A Saxon and Viking town will be recreated. Weapons will be limited to round shield, sword, axe, two handed axe, and spear. There will be combat archery.

NOVICE TOURNEY - Lockins Park is being considered as a possible site.

OLD BUSINESS

KEG STAND - Still looking for a keg stand. Officers suggested checking in the Panther catalog.

NEW BUSINESS

BOUNCED CHECKS - The following action will be taken for all bounced checks: A photo copy will be made of the check, the check writer will be notified for payment of funds via letter. If a fee is changed the check writer will be charged a late fee and possibly a dollar to cover expenses.

SPONSORS FOR DREKKAR - A request will be added to the Drekkar.

PHOTO SCRAPBOOK - Stefan of Cambion will be organizing the scrapbook for future use for newspaper ads, or for obtaining sites.

SCA PHONE LINE - A suggestion was given to get an SCA listing in the white pages. Beornheard will look into getting a professional answering service instead of using a personal answering machine.
