Monthly Barony Meeting
Baroness Brenna's Abode

Her Excellency's Message

To Storvik, and all those who hear my words, Greetings from Frau Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik.

First, join me in thanking again, all who worked so hard for our Novice Tourney. People traveled from far distances to attend, and I heard many compliments on the variety of activities - something for everyone. This was not an easy goal to attempt and I am proud of our success.

For those who could not be there - know that had Sir Gauss asked to be released from his obligations to us, and I greatly appreciate the time and efforts he has made during his tenure as our Seneschal. Lord Frederick has stepped up to this task with a willing heart, and we expect word of his warrant soon.

Good people - I hear and heed the sound of the war horns, and the Word of our King calling us to War in the Debatable Lands. The wagons are packed, the armor gleams, and when next some of us meet, it will be on the battlefields at Pennsic.

We have planned two Barony meetings for August. For those of you are will be at Pennsic, I am requesting a meeting on Sunday, August 11, at 5 pm, in the Storvik encampment. By that time I shall have received final directions from Their Majesties regarding activities planned for Atlantia, and I shall pass on their instructions. Then on Monday, August 19, at our fighter practice, there will be a brief business meeting.

To those of you who will remain behind to guard Storvik in our absence, we will joyfully return in Victory once Peace is declared. And to celebrate the classes, the battles, and the shopping, there is the Post Pennsic Revel. I look forward to hearing the stories of our adventures.

Until we meet again, I remain yours, in Service to our Dream, to Storvik, and Atlantia-

Johanna
