Storvik 2004 Novice Tourney

The Barony of Storvik's News Magazine

Our Baroness (The Boss!)

Lady Johanna von Sudeborn Louise Flessas
9821 Hedin Dr Silver Spring, MD 20903-1806
(301) 434-4414 Johannastorvik@cs.com

Her Excellency's Message

Greetings to the good People of Storvik, and all those who hear my words, from Frau Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik.

I can only begin to thank all of you involved with Novice Tourney - I have never been more proud of Storvik, and it's people. Vivats! to Milady Elizabeth and her staff, incredible job. All of you who attended, you know exactly what I mean, and to those of you who missed it, your loss is greater than you know.

My Archery Champion is now Rhiryd, and the honor is well deserved. Graham won the children's archery championship.

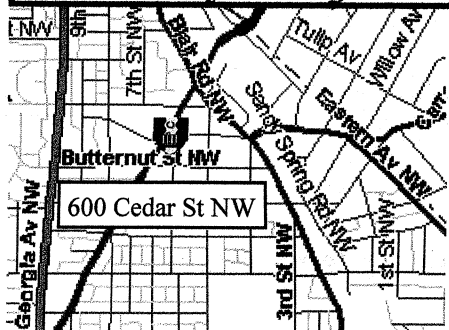

An announcement - Know that in September, at our Barony Meeting, nominations for my successor will be made, and polling letters should be sent on to the Crown shortly thereafter. Please consider your response seriously. This is not a choice of who is most or least like me, or who you like best; but instead is who you think will best represent Storvik to Their Majesties and uphold the Honor of Atlantia.

And now on to August, and to Pennsic. The call to war has gone forth, and we shall soon be traveling to the Debatable Lands. To those of you who stay home - guard our borders, and keep our Honor intact until we return. To those who travel with me - We follow our King, to defend our allies; hold your heads high, keep your weapons at hand, and prepare for the trials to come.

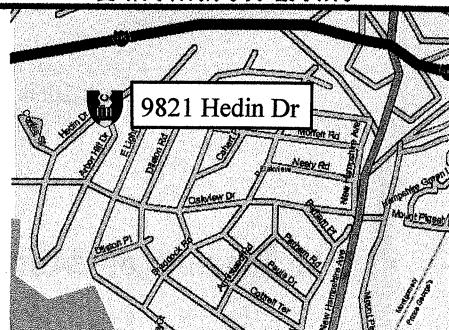

We will celebrate our triumphant return at the end of August, at the Post Pennsic Revel - I eagerly anticipate the tales of your adventures, on and off the field. Now I must continue preparing for the Journey.

Until we meet again, I remain yours, in service to Storvik and Atlantia-
Johanna

Barony Meeting

Baronial At Home

Barony Meeting Minutes / July 11

Attending Citizens of Storvik:

Officers' Reports:

Baroness: Still trying to see if Their Royal Majesties can attend Investiture of our new Baron & Baroness. Working on a deadline for the Polling; mailing date will be adjusted accordingly. Nominations probably at the September meeting, Organizing Atlantean Guard Duty at Pennsic.

Seneschal: Seneschal's meeting attended by Frederick & Rhiryd. Storvik events: March 26, 27--Investiture; July 2-4--Mega Event; August 27--Post Pennsic Revel; January 14, 2006--Yule Revel.

Archer Marshall: Good turnout last practice. Had training in Combat Archery.

Arts & Sciences: Working on tokens.

Castellan: 2 new bodies. Will make decision on holding Newcomers' Meeting during Pennsic shortly. Still looking for loaner garb return. Talked to Serena; list of available garb with digital pictures will go on-line.

Chronicler: Has heard nothing negative about his warrant, so it must be current.

Exchequer: Nothing to report

Herald: Putting out the call for a "Tenure Track" position to replace Pedro by Yule Revel. Paperwork for "Sulky's Pup" has been sent in..

Knight Marshall: No report (Well, there's nothing in my notes, anyway!).

Minister of the Lists: No report.

Minister of Minors: No report.

Web Minister: No report.

Upcoming Events:

Novice Tourney: Checked out site; space arrangements worked out. Pavilion to be brought for horses but will not be set up unless needed. At least two Horse demos to occur. Aym will be Chiurgeon. Marshall's available, but more will be useful. Archery, Rapier, and A&S are go. Combat Archery Marshall still needed (Rhird will talk to Roland). Samara will look into getting a keg of cider. Brenna is Minister of the Lists. William the Younger will do Youth Combat. Prizes still to be acquired.

Working on roping in a Herald for the processional. Banners made this, but they can be used as wall-hangings as well. Will also have flowers for the processional.

Local Baronage to sit In State with Johanna for appropriate Pomp.

Tons of two different stews, also pickles and homemade cheese.

Northern Regional War Practice: Rolled into the end of Novice Tourney. Just need to be assured that we have a Marshall.

Post Pennsic Revel: Its in the Acorn and the Drekkar. Tentative menu to be discussed. Have Troll and A&S Herders. Wants to do non-European dance. Needs set-up and take-down crew, Drumming & Bardic Circle help, Baronial Servers.

Yule Revel: Everything proceeding well.

OS Business:

NONE!

New Business:

Pennsic Baronial Information: Barony meeting proposed for Saturday evening with a potluck dinner. We will have a "Changing of the Guard" during Storvik's duty time. Opening ceremonies on Sunday; processional status uncertain, but plan to have one at this time. Land Grab--47 pre-registered in lot N30 (plot we asked for), with 250 sq. feet per person (technically). Food plans to be discussed--those who wish to participate must give advance notice and tell what days they will be participating (start & stop); you do NOT have to camp in Storvik in order to be on the Storvik meal plan. Camp fees to be determined.

Moved & approved that Storvik buy banners from Johanna for our permanent use.

"The Name of the Rose" (cool period movie) has been issued on DVD.

New Business (Continued):

Moved & approved that Storvik buys a camping event water heater. Sean de la Mere, Johanna, and Brenna will investigate & buy if cost is less than $400.

October 31 -- (Same day as Marine Marathon) Site for an SCA demo available near the Mall. Cost of apx. $50 for bond. Do we want to do this? Abel is given a $150 limit for spending.

Overheard and Unattributed (To protect the guilty):

"I've been chewing on it, if you really want it."

"Which part of 'meshuganah' don't you understand?"

A Chronicle of The Kingdom Archery Championship...

On Saturns-Day, the 26th of the month of Juno, two score and five archers from throughout the Kingdom of Atlantia came together in fields and forest of our fine sister Barony of Stierbach to establish without question who would be the next Archery Champion for our fine and glorious Majesties. The setting was that of a Royal Hunt, with game aplenty: Fox, boar, rabbit, a running deer, a noble elk, and bears hidden deeply in the woods. We even had opportunity to deal with three surly Frenchmen chastising us from a battlement (a moving target, complete with a recording from the famous scene from Monty Python's The Holy Grail). These varlets were sent packing, with many a cloth-yard shaft for adornment.

At midday, we ravenous hunters were treated to a fine meal of meat and vegetable pies, fruit picked fresh, cheeses and sweets. Truly, no better meal could have been had in all the lands.

We, then, once again, took up our bows and returned to the task with targets ever more challenging. In the end, the eight best were selected to compete, two by two to determine who was to be Champion. After the field was whittled away, only two of our most excellent bowmen remained: Lord Siegfried of Highland Foorde, and Lord Gregge of Roxbury Mill. The final challenge was keen and breathtaking, with Lord Siegfried winning the Badge and Quiver once again.

As for me, your gentle author of the tale, I acquitted myself sufficiently that our newest Champion has ask me to compete for a position on the Atlantian Team at Pennsic to defend the honour of our finest of Kingdoms.

I offer thanks to Earl Mika, who led the hunt as resigning Champion, and to our gracious hosts, the Baron and Baroness of Steirbach.

--Rhird ap Gwerstan, Bowman Elite, Archery Marshall of Storvik

Unto Her Excellency, Johanna, Baroness of Storvik, His Excellency Michael Batcok, Triton Principal Herald, Arbogast of Diedenhofen, & all others to whom these presents may come, from Dom Pedro de Alcazar, Drekkar Herald, greetings.

At Storvik's Novice Tourney on July 17, the following courts & baronial presentations were made:

1) Her Excellency gave the Atlantian Cavalry a present.

2) At the morning court:

o Each of the contestants in the heavy & rapier lists was formally presented with his or her escort to the barons & baronesses there assembled o Sir Thomas de Calais took Lord Connor Sinclair to be his squire.

3) At the afternoon court:

o The office of seneschal was formally handed over to Rhiryd ap Gwerstan from Friedrich von Teufen.

o Her Excellency bade farewell to the following gentles who will be leaving our lands:

- Nina & Demere
- Morin & Perrin

o The following were the winners of the various contests:

- Heavy: Joscelyn de Tremaire
- Rapier: Seamus O'Malloran
- Arts & Sciences: Antissa & Beatrix of Leipzig
- Bread-baking: Brianna
- Archery: Novice winner: Timothy of Shaftesbury
Children: Graham
Baronial Champion: Rhiryd ap Gwerstan
- Children's fighting: Katrina Warwick

In Service,

Dom Pedro de Alcazar
Drekkar Herald

Attendance at Novice Tourney was unexpectedly high, I attribute this to a few things:

First, the weather was great.

Second, The first Cavalry event in Northern Atlantia. There were apx. 30 people pre-registered for Cavalry events. Add their family and friends and I am sure this bumped up attendance.

Third, I took it upon myself to post our Event announcement online to all the local baronage, local barony email groups and the Kingdom email group. I went to all the local Barony websites and emailed all the officers with the event announcement and all updates. A bit time intensive but worth it in the end.

Feast was set for 80. It was sold out. As usual, many signed on at the event.

Planning for the event was interesting. I learned a lot and could not have been so successful with out the guidance of our seasoned veterans.

The "usual part" of the event was fairly easy. Marshals for all fighting forms were secured with the help of everyone.

Baroness Johanna planned and executed the Novice Heavy Fighter Processional. She purchased and made all the heraldic color banners and facilitated setting up the list field with all the banners. I obtained flowers for nominal cost. 100 stems for 30 bucks. Baroness Johanna, working with Dame Brenna, organized the Processional by authorization date/time. It was a fabulous display of pageantry! I was "working the crowd" as the Processional was happening. The spectators loved it! WE got many complements.

The Archers were set off far away from everything. I apologize for that logistic error. I would put them closer to the rest of the event in the future. I have also been told that having an Archery Novice tourney and Baronial Champion Tourney on the same day makes for a logistical nightmare. Equipment issues, too wide a range of skill, rushing some and slowing others.

I suggest using the big field as list field for all. Setting all pavilions facing the cornfields backed to the barn & this years list field. I believe that configuration would "open up" the event, giving it that "big event" feel. I saw the Rapier folks at it under the trees, unfortunately I did not get over there much. It did look spiffy from the list field though. The only report I have gotten from them was a big thank you at the end of the day. This is good.

Dame Brenna was MOL. She filed all information for authorization cards FAST. She knew the newly authorized needed a card for Pennsic. She also filled the MOL seat Sunday for WarPractice.

The novice A&S display was GREAT! I believe there were 17 entries. Kim and her judges had more than they expected! Another arena where the huge turnout multiplied the work. Kim, James did a superb job of managing the extra entries!

Feast was planned prepared and served by Devora and her superb staff. Other than the initial contact asking Devora to do it, I turned it over to her and all was taken care of. In the rush of activity the week before the event I missed posting the menu to the Internet. I apologize for that mistake. I was able to provide the menu for the fine Troll staff incase folks asked what was for dinner.

Lady Tirzah headed troll. Margaret took the pre-event registrations and Lady Orla assisted using her fine exchequer skills. I am sure that they had others helping, but alas I don't have names. They worked hard all day. Given the unexpected number of attendees, I think they all deserve extra kudos! Reports were worked up before the end of the event. Orla and I hope to finalize the official report before departure for Pennsic.

Next time we use this site it would be good to put a sign directing people to troll at the gate. I got reports that the Cavalry MOL was mistaken for Troll, Cavalry MOL was gracious and helped all reach their intended destination.

Atlantian Cavalry

I would highly suggest a deputy autocrat to focus on this aspect of the event. From the beginning it was a lot of work. Atlantian Cavalry is new in Northern Atlantia so there are not many with hands on experience Autocratting an event with Horses. I was heavily involved with all aspects of the Cavalry. The lines between the Cavalry Marshal's and the Event Autocrat's responsibilities were at times very blurred. It was a learning experience for everyone.

I recruited folks from the Barony ahead of time to set up the BMT Friday night. The Cavalry team had offered to set it up, I knew they would be beat after trailering horses 500 miles on a Friday afternoon. I am forever grateful that we had the help Friday night. As it was, one Cavalry member actually made it Friday night. The others were late due to truck and trailer issues on the road. We need to all learn how to put that darn thing together. As it was, Johanna was the only one onsite that knew how to put it up. Many gained experience hit points doing it for Novice. Lets all remember who was there so next time it will be just a little easier!

The Marshals came from South Carolina, most trucking their horses with them. That is a long trip with just regular SCA stuff, imagine doing it with animals to tend to. There are a lot of SCA rules for having Cavalry events, so I had to learn some of them. The good news is this. There were plenty of Cavalry Marshals, 10 horses on site, no injuries and it appeared that all had a good time.

We do all need to learn that Cavalry activities at SCA events are just like Heavy fighting in the SCA, you must be participating in the prescribed path toward Cavalry Authorization or already authorized to ride. All Cavalry events have a separate pre-registration process. Don't come to an SCA event expecting a pony ride.

Unfortunately, a young woman that aligns herself with Storvik was allowed to ride a horse before paying and without going through the motions that the other riders endured. She arrived at the end of the day. To add to the mess she never paid for her horse. The consequence for this, the young woman will not be able to ride at SCA Cavalry events unless she is fully pre-registered and paid with cash or Money order 7 days prior to the event. The Marshallate is also requesting proof of age from the young lady as she did not appear to be 18 to them. The Cavalry marshals should not have let her ride. The Deputy Earl Marshal has addressed this; she is dealing with the field marshal involved.

Two local SCA members (who are also life long horse enthusiasts) have taken the bull by the horns and have begun a branch of the Atlantian Cavalry in Stovik! They are in touch with The Atlantian Deputy Earl Marshal of Cavalry. With her guidance, they should be full Marshals in a year. At this point they are authorized to do everything to put on a Cavalry event except Authorize new riders. (They can't sign the paperwork) With local Warranted Cavalry Marshals we can have Cavalry events here and not have members driving 500 miles towing animals.

Water bearing. As usual water bearing needs help. Cicilia cannot do it alone.

There were some complaints that water bearers didn't make it to the Archery Field. Note for next year: recruit more water bearers to go all over.

With the huge turnout I think we all did a great job. Considering what we were expecting and what we got, we all pitched in to manage a great day.

WE had booked the site expecting 80-100 people. The cost for the park for that number is $120.00. I called the park last week and reported that we had over 200 attendees. The price for the park is 300.00 for 200+ attendees. Lady Orla will send a check to MNCPPC for $180.00 and we will be even. The site manager had heard we had a huge turnout and congratulated us on our success! Said they look forward to the next SCA event.

The majority of Baronial things have been returned to Rorik and Janina's. I have a few lengths of hose, sheet walls (that I am washing) and list field stakes that need to go home to Rorik's. That is on my punch list to do before Pennsic.

The directional signs need some attention. Sean and I had a hard time getting some of them into the ground.

Work was done on organizing the Baronial Tentage. We are working on marking what is baronial.

Thanks to everyone for making it a great day!

In Service,

Elizabeth Harlyn, Autocrat, Storvik Novice Tourney

Unto all who read these presents, greetings!

Have you ever wanted to be the one to lead the people of Storvik in cheering our stalwart warriors & skilled artisans? Have you ever wanted to lead our forces when we parade into the Pennsic muster? Like doing a bit of theater & art?

Great! Have I got a job for you: How'd you like to be a herald? At Yule Revel, I am stepping down from being the barony's Herald to let another person take up the position & do all the things I do. I will train anyone who would like to be a Herald in the ins & outs of the art.

Remember, a Herald is an integral part of a barony. Like the Seneschal or the Exchquer, the Herald is one of the offices that Corpora requires for a barony's good standing.

In Service,
Dom Pedro de Alcazar, Drekkar Herald

As autumn approaches and the winds of War fade in the west, another sound is heard echoing throughout the fair lands of Atlantia. No, it's not the sound of frozen cicada's dropping from the trees. It's the lilt of laughter and merriment carried on warm desert breezes across sun-caressed dunes.

The Barony of Storvik, jewel of Atlantia, invites you to join the fun and frivolity of their Post Pennsic Dessert Revel, or, One Last Night at the Casbah. Tune up your dumbek, wear your yelek, and shimmy for the Ladies of Storvik as we celebrate that belly dancer in all of us.

The traditional "Best Pennsic Story" bardic competition will be held as well as a "Best Pennsic War Treasure" contest. Although there will be no martial activities, come show off your war wounds for the "Best Pennsic Bruises" contest (combatant & non-combatant entries will be judged, but all bruises must be documentable). All brave lords are also invited to participate in the "Best Male Belly Dancer" competition. No experience or rhythm required, just a great sense of humor.

A light day board will be provided for all to enjoy, and a competition in the culinary arts will be held for the best period dessert. Please bring pillows, throws, and wall hangings to enhance that Oasis feel.

Drumming, dancing, and games of daring do for the whole family! Come and play "Pin the Fish on the Peer" (no actual fish will be harmed during this game), "Who Wants to Be An Aristocrat", and wonder at "Blindman's Pillowfight" (please bring your own list legal pillow).

A&S Activities:

All are invited to display their arts and sciences learned or practiced at Pennsic War XXXIII. Works in progress also are welcome.

A call to all bards and drummers: there will be a bardic, and drumming circle. We would also request drummers to play for the delight of the Ladies of Storvik during the Male Belly Dance contest.

Cooks and Bakers are invited to tempt Her Excellency with an entry in the "Best Period Dessert" competition, as the traditional Storvik Post Pennsic Dessert Potluck continues. Take advantage of a $1.00 lower troll fee for each tempting treat (which feeds 6-8 people) presented at Troll. Period dessert competition entries also qualify. Desserts will be served to the populace buffet style after entries are judged.

Cost: Adult--$8.00 Child 6 to 17--$4.00 Child 0 to 5--Free

Non-members please add $3.00 non-member fee to total. Bring a desert dish to feed 6-8 and receive $1.00 off your fee for each dessert presented at Troll.

Please make checks payable to: Barony of Storvik, SCA Inc. Send reservations to autocrat (See below).

October 2: University of Atlantia

The Barony of Storvik will host the fall session of the University of Atlantia in College Park, Maryland, at the University of Maryland campus. It will be in the Armory building, the same place as February, 2001. Class listings will be in the September Acorn with full descriptions available online Fee: No site fee but the University welcomes donations.

Feast: There will be a feast and dancing to further enjoy the day of educational enlightenment. See announcement in next month's Drekkar for details.

Directions: Get on the Washington beltway (I-495) and go to Exit 25 at the top for Route 1. Go south about 3 miles and you will see the campus on your right. There are 3 entrances, each with a traffic light. Turn in the middle one and the armory will be 100 feet ahead. Bear right to park and go downstairs.
