Barony Meeting Minutes - July 17

Attending Citizens of Storbvik:

Sean de la Mare, Serena de la Mar, Baroness Elizabeth Harlyn, William the Younger, Samara Caitlyn of Elfwyne, Karl Haraldsson, Kim of Wolfshaven, James Griffin, Ceara nic Fineleagh, Badouin McKenzie, Arbogast of Diedenhofen, Genevieve, Patricia of Trakai, Baroness Johanna von Sudeborn, Graham

Officers' Reports:

Baron and Baroness: Kingdom Archery—Two Storbvik archers, Gregor and Seamus, finished in the top eight!

Seneschal: Quarterly report will be a tad late, but that has been authorized. Still needs a permanent replacement.

Archery Marshall: Cian finished Marshall in Training at Kingdom Archery.

A & S: Towels done, need to be given to Their Excellencies. Janina's hoods are done. Four entries in A&S at Novice Tourney. Brewing night, A&S back to Kim & James place.

Chatelaine: Demo went well; lots of people at event. Two possible designs for Storbvik business cards completed. Possibility of combined demo with Roxbury Mill. Takoma Park Folk Festival—$30 to buy table space, but must bring our own table; Authorized to split fee with Roxbury Mill..

Chronicler: Nothing to report.

Exchequer: $5840.60 in bank. Earned $2499.50, spent $1439.64.

Troll forms must be filled out properly. Signatories to be redone. Financial manual needs to be revised. Committee Member definition must be made clearer. Will be establishing a Newcomers' Fund. Should there be a 'Check and Balance' procedure when the Exchequer autocrats an event?

Herald: Consult Table occurred at Novice Tourney.

Knight Marshall: Practice going well; attendance 20-30 fighters. Youth Combat practice at Novice; not enough for other times.

Minister of the Lists: 18 authorizations or renewals.

Minister of Minors: Two children at combat.

Officers' Reports (Continued):

Web Minister: Website updated.

Alias ([officer]@storvik.atlantia.sca.org) sent out for those who need it. Can one alias go to multiple people? Checking with Kingdom Web Minister.

Deputies happy to take over Web Minister's duties during her pregnancy.

Tintinabulum Youth Permission Form be posted on Yahoo group and mailed out.

Old Business:

Business Cards: $50 for 500; new design approved.

Canvas: Still in the works.

Children's Names on Website: Still under works.

Hoods: Patterns being sewn on.

Medallions: Pricing is different than originally planned; $300 approved initially, but actual price is $600. Price difference includes exclusivity of design PLUS triple the number of medallions! What about people who have already received a Silkie/Lozulet/Owl? Can they purchase a medallion? This to be discussed.

Pennsic: Storvik Court at 6:00 pm Monday of War Week. Held under Kingdom Pavilion on the field. Afterwards there will be an "Historic Pennsic Walking Tour" with various Barons and Baronesses.

Storvik is charged with decorating the Kingdom Pavilions. What needs to be done will be communicated to all once the Baroness knows what that will be.

Anyone who gets a Kingdom-level Award at Pennsic, please contact the Baroness.

Tandem Yule with Roxbury Mill: Thanks, but no thanks.

New Business:

Chronicler: Needs a "Back-up back-up" for in case Magnus can't take up the slack; Genevieve volunteered.

Demo in Rock Creek Park: If we do a demo here (instead of on the Mall), we would have greater foot traffic and an easier time of handing out information. Moreover, more of those who we contact will be local and thus more likely to have an incentive to become involved with the SCA & Storvik.

Fighter Practice: Cancelled during War Week and the two weeks thereafter.

Fighter Practice Site: New contract negotiated with longer hours, but rates have tripled; great load on EVERYONE. Gauss sent word that we started at $600 per year with Oldcastle paying half. Outdoor sites available. What about expecting contributions? Maybe we should have a contribution/cost meter next to Fighter Practice jar to show what is being made that particular night. We should publicize our costs. More active fundraising is needed.

Set a maximum for Baronial contributions. Let people know if we're going to cancel practice. Checks would be tax deductible. Maybe we should do this for two quarters and see what happens. Find other sites as backup.

Volunteers needed for signs. Post info to appropriate areas. Can we get money from other baronies? (Probably not)

Will have an official designee to handle monies and deposit. Will check to see if extended hours generate more money. Signing of contract approved, but overall issue is to be revisited at the October meeting.

Kid's Fete Volunteers: Needed on Wednesday of War Week, 1-4 pm..

Meeting Site Cost: Price for church meeting room is $25 month. Vote to pay.

Event Reports:

Novice and Unbelt Tourney: See Autocrat report, page 7.

Upcoming Events:

Baronial Birthday: Croom site inspected; cleaned up, insets removed, trees planted, barn cleaned out. Bright Hills may be doing some of the cooking. Thinking about running multiple small tourneys instead of one big one. Working on organizing set-up; to begin Friday of event weekend at noon.

Duke Day in Roxbury: Do we want to have our Birthday on the same weekend?

Regional Kingdom Calendar Meeting: None to occur. Trying to work out all event scheduling well in advance.

Overheard and Unattributed (to protect the Guilty):

"The Baron stifles himself."

NOTE: Many activities will not occur during Pennsic; if you cannot get confirmation that a particular activity is going on during this time, do NOT go there!

On July 8-10, 2005, Storvik held their annual Novice Tournament.

This year we reinstated the Unbelt Tourney to great success. Thanks to Duke Badouin's letter to the Chivalry, we had a great turnout of both fighter and Knights. Our teaching/guidance staff included three Dukes both days.

We hosted an A&S competition, a Brewing competition, a Novice Heavy tourney, a Novice Rapier tourney, an Unbelt Heavy tourney, a youth practice, melee scenarios, and archery activities (both target and combat). We offered ten classes and had a Herald's Point.

It was a two-night camping event with fires and bardic circles both evenings. On Saturday evening, we had two guitars and a drum, along with numerous singers. At one point there were close to 30 people around the circle.

Even with a low Troll price, extravagant prizes, and a late event announcement, we were able to bring in $99 from the event itself. This was supported by $950.50 worth of fundraising; this included $137.50 for the Kingdom Travel Fund, $565 for the Barony's Fighter Practice fund, and $228 for the Newcomers' fund that we will be creating.

We had 18 authorizations or renewals.

The weather was beautiful. The biggest catastrophes for the day were running low on $1 bills, hot water in the water bearing hoses, and someone stepping on the hose connection.

We had two complaints—

- 1) One fighter's family was 'run over' by Rapiers. Roland was nearby and spoke to the Rapiers in question, resolving the issue.
- 2) The A&S contest was relegated to a tiny table under the short pavilion with lots of trash, while being completely overwhelmed by the Auctions. In the future, the auctions will not be held so close to the A&S exhibits.

After a bumpy start, we managed both a new food format (which we should try again, only with better advertising) and our A&S competition.

Submitted for their Excellencies' approval,

Ariana
