Their Excellencies' Message

Unto the hot and sticky populace of Storvik do Corun and Brenna send cool greetings,

It would seem that the cool spring has left us and we are now in the throes of another typical summer, all heat and humidity. We hope you are keeping cool and that you have started taking on lots of fluids in preparation for the Great War that slowly approaches.

We would like to thank those who attended and competed at our Birthday celebration. There were many fine skills displayed, both martial and artistic. We thank our autocrats, Caitlin and Oswulf, for running a fine event, especially Oswulf for taking over solo when Caitlin took ill and had to leave. We hope she is feeling better. For those who were not in attendance, know that Lord Oswulf the Grey has been inducted into the Baronial Order of the Lozulet, as has Lady Nina of the Lost Caverns. These two have shown by their hard work that they keep Storvik in their hearts, and we are forever grateful.

At Northern Regional War Practice, our "wussy" forces gloriously fought to maintain the honour and name of Storvik against the heinous slurs heaped upon our good citizens by Baron Temur of the Eight Hills. They valiantly defeated...bravely beat to a standstill...did pretty darned well against a vastly more numerous foe, bringing much honour to Storvik while dying to the last...before finally calling a halt because of inclement weather (that's our story and we're sticking to it).

By the time this missive reaches you, Celt Wars will have come and gone. More on that in next month's issue. Until then we remain,

Yours in service,
Corun and Brenna
Baron and Baroness que Storvik

The Chronicler's Complaints

Every so often, someone starts belly-aching that "you've screwed up the schedule for (your group's event here)!" Of course, I don't like to hear this—but it goes with the territory.

Now, one of the problems I have with getting everyone's regular weekly events right (as opposed to the major events that need an Autocrat) is that these events keep changing—they get dropped, they change sites, the days and/or times change, etc. It's very hard to keep up with all this by referring to the previous month's publication for (your group name here) or by trying to get to a web site that doesn't get updated often enough.

Therefore, the following plea—to all and sundry, but, most especially, to my fellow local Chroniclers—PLEASE, if you know of a change in your group's schedule, it would be most appreciated at this end if you were to e-mail me with the activity's name, new date/time/place/whatever.

Remember, you're doing yourself and your group a favor by doing ME this favor.

A Proclamation

The Officers of the Barony of Storvik wish it to be known that they have taken no official position on the subject of creating a new Principality within the boundaries of the Kingdom of Atlantia. While it is important that the citizens of the Barony be kept informed of such matters, any opinions that may be expressed by any Officer are personal and should not be considered official Baronial policy. The purpose for any announcements on this subject appearing in the "Drekkar" is solely for the edification of Storvik and should not be construed as either supporting or opposing the creation of a principality.

Barony of Stierbach Picnics

This year's picnics are still at Briar Patch Park in lovely downtown Sterling, Va. They will be held on July 12 and 26—this last one being a small war practice/get-ready-for-Pennsic melee. There is a picnic shelter and grill, but you might want to bring your own—& definitely a picnic basket! Stierbach will provide lemonade, the menu is up to you. This is a DRY site.

Last year's were so successful that we just had to do them again—we had that much fun...even when it rained! We will have fighting and A&S and fighting and dancing and fighting and archery (with a special emphasis on the Baron's favorite - Combat Archery) and fighting and sewing and fighting and dancing and fighting and...well, you get my drift. Oh, yesss—and our own brand of Croquet, per usual. Bring your banners and be Medieval from 1:00pm to dark! (Yes, garb is strongly encouraged!) There is a children's playground—lots of slides, swings, & room to run around in. Plenty of parking, too!

Contact: Luther (Marty Wilsey) at (703) 218-1173 or e-mail: luther@agent.infodata.com.

If you don't know what this is all about, you're just not connected to the SCA. So, this time, I'm not putting in all the information available (particularly as I have a deadline and can't get to a website where I can just download all the info). Instead, here's the most basic particulars and directions.

Week One: From August 1 up to and including August 6—The usual non-scheduled nonsense.

Week Two: From August 7 up to and including August 16—The usual scheduled nonsense.

More detailed information available at either the Pennsic XXVII webpage found at:

(which is where I couldn't get to) or from the Information/ Publications Deputy:

Philadelphia, PA 19119-3439

Directions to Cooper's Lake Campground (where we got to war, silly):

Located on Currie Road in Slipper Rock, PA. Take your best route to I-79 in Pennsylvania. Take Exit 29 (Route 422 West - a left turn). Proceed approximately 3/4 miles to the sign for Cooper's Lake Campground (sign is very small) and turn right onto Currie Road. Follow until you see the signs directing you to the Troll Booth and check in.

Special Exhibition (Through August 9): A Collector's Cabinet

Dutch and Flemish artists excelled in creating exquisite, small paintings. 17th Century patrons of the arts were not primarily princes or church leaders, but private citizens who had prospered from business and international trade. Because their residences were modest in comparison to palaces and churches, these collectors offered artists few opportunities for grand, decorative commissions. Instead, they preferred works of art that were appropriately sized for a "collector's cabinet" or kunstkamer. This term originally designated a kind of furniture for housing small & precious objects, but eventually referred to an intimately scaled room for displaying a private collection.

This exhibition will create the character of a 17th Century collector's cabinet, with an assembly of artistic and natural objects. Galleries will be hung with Dutch, Flemish, Italian, & German paintings. Four display cases will be devoted to other types of objects found in kunstkamers, such as small bronze, ivory, and wood sculptures; Dutch and Flemish commemorative medals; antique coins and medallions; rare Chinese and European decorative arts; jewelry; glass; musical and scientific instruments; and prints, drawings, and rare books. There will also be exotic shells and coral of the type brought back by Dutch traders from the South Pacific and the West Indies.
