Her Excellency's Message

Unto the Populace of Storvik, Cheerful Greetings and warm wishes, from Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik,

The cold winds howl, and snow heaps about our doorsteps. Now indoor tasks and crafts occupy our time and hands, as we look forward to the spring tourney season that seems so far away.

I encourage you all to join me at the upcoming events in our neighboring groups, there is something afoot 'most every weekend, and I'm hoping to attend all of them. At two, in particular, I would like to see a strong Storvik presence - Bright Hills Birthday, the first weekend in February, and the Investiture of Ponte Alto's new Baron and Baroness on the last weekend.

Also, I wish to repeat a call I made at our Yule Revel. Many of our Baronial officers need deputies, to assist in their duties. Our Seneschal and Exchequer will be stepping down by the fall, and both of these crucial offices need at least two dependable deputies. Now is the time to learn about how you can help keep our Barony strong.

Until we meet again, I hope you stay safe in your daily travels. I remain yours, in service to Atlantia, and Storvik.

Attending Citizens of Storvik—

Arbogast of Diedenhofen, Evantia, Alicia D'Avignon, Gauss Magnuson, Brenna of Storvik, Pedro de Alcazar, Johanna von Sudeborn, Devora bat Shimshon, Jaelle of Armida, Nina of the Lost Caverns, Nicholas Demere of the Oaken Staff

Herald: Confirmed that the name "Order of the Owl" (the new Storvik Order) has passed Golden Dolphin and is going before the Laurel. Lost voice, so Deputy took over at Yule Revel. Yule Revel Court Report to be completed.

Knight Marshall: First practice held at the new site—St. Andrews' Church in College Park.

Minister of Arts & Sciences (via telephone): February A&S—Work on the Garb Closet; sizing, mix n' match to make complete outfits, etc.

"As soon as I get the energy to stand up and grab it..."

"She wants a diet Dr. Pecker of any persuasion."

The Chronicler's Complaints

If you haven't resubscribed, that's why you aren't reading this!

Well, let's see...

Okay, first of all, no maps this issue. I'm running late again.

Second, thanks ever so much to everyone for all the help I got in running the Yule Revel. I hope everyone had a good time.

Third, I still need people out there to write and/or contribute artwork. C'mon, you all....

Yours in Service,

Arbogast of Diedenhofen

Nobody Expects....

by Arbogast of Diedenhofen, Evantia, and Romana Millersdottir

Performed at last year's Performer's Revel, this atrocity is sung to the tune of "Winter Wonderland." If you people don't want more filler like this, then start writing stuff of your own!

In the late fifteen hundred
The Church knew it had blundered.
Heretical texts
Gave rise to new sects.
And so the Inquisition came to town.

'Twas Tomas de Torquemada
Who had said, "Guys ya gotta
Conduct some research
For our Mother Church."
That's why the Inquisitions come to town

You can't believe a faith that's Babylonian;
That Eastern Empire crud just isn't true.
Catholicism's right when it is Roman;
All other creeds the righteous should eschew.

General de Torquemada
Said, "Behave the way you oughta.
In Word, Thought, and Deed—
You'll follow ONE CREED
Or else the Inquisition comes to town.

You can gain extra favors
If you turn in your neighbors;
Just give us their names
And you'll be spared from the flames.
A sign the Inquisition's come to town.

Later on you'll expire
As you burn in our fire.
At the auto-da-fe
It's your lucky day.
When the Inquisition comes to town.

If your faith is shaky you must tell us;
If you have some doubts you must confess.
If you don't repent you might compel us.
To leave no body parts intact to bless.

If you don't want to face us.
You must stay in God's graces.
Believe as we say;
There's only OUR way!
Don't make the Inquisition come to town.

Greatly feared and respected,
Men in Red no-one expected.
They care for your soul,
Not to mention your gold.
When the Inquisition comes to town.

As they entered each city,
The Men in Red said, "What a pity.
"This place has a blight
"of not thinking Right."
That's why the Inquisition's come to town.

There is one among us we call Boris;
Torturing has been his claim to fame.
Look at all the converts he's made for us.
And he can't even learn to spell his name.

We will have no Reformation—
That would be your damnation!
Your soul's in the lurch
If you abandon the Church.
Be glad the Inquisition's come to town.
