Drekkar

February 2004, A.S. XXXVIII

Volume 18, Issue 11

I'm Sorry!

This is the second cover in a row with no nifty graphics. Why is this, you may ask? (Go ahead, I'll wait.) Your beloved Chronicler has been very sick for the last couple of weeks and, therefore, not only did he not go searching for anything spiffy for the cover, but he was--once again--late in getting out our issue.

Your Chronicler is well on the way to recovery (at least as far as he can ever get) and so, late again, here is your Drekkar.

Yours in Sickly Service,

Arbogast of Diedenhofen

The Barony of Storbik's news magazine

Officers' Reports-

Exchequer - Made $160.72 from Yule Revel, but we lost our deposit as the kitchen wasn't fully cleaned; We should have a checklist for the Church to prevent this from recurring. Current balance: $3,471.71. As of Twelfth Night there was a new Kingdom Exchequer.

Herald - Met many nice newcomers at meeting. Received a decades-old submission.

Knight Marshall - Reports filed. Fighter Practice to be pre-empted three times this year by Church activities. Invasion of Ponte Alto planned for February 8 over lack of payment of a previous debt (one peppercorn per year).

Minister of Lists - Nothing new.

Web Minister - Sent new information to Chronicler. Storvik e-mail sites being set up; contact Web Minister. Instructions on how to get to the Storvik List to read without subscribing to list will be checked out; do we want to do this? We should set up a public access archives.

Event Reports-

Yule Revel - Went well. 21 non-members attended, 85 total attendees. Reservation people should be more local to sponsoring group. Classes were well attended.

Upcoming Events-

Croom (for various upcoming events) - No calls yet for reservation because all dates for other baronies' events not given to Frederick.

Baronial Championship - To be held at Marietta Mansion on May 14-16.

Novice Tourney - To be held at either Croom or Marietta.

Baronial Birthday - Preliminary work soon to be done.

Much discussion commenced concerning our event dates and possible conflicts with other baronies' events; our dates are somewhat up in the air because of the potential conflicts.

We have volunteers for the next two events.

Old Business-

The Sheep - Still not slaughtered. Will be moved and/or killed by next month.

University Bid - No news yet. Site needs to be larger than in past; Stefan to investigate.

New Business-

We drastically need to inventory all our stuff ASAP for Kingdom; to occur February 28.

Tents need to be cleaned and/or repaired before next use. Dates for this to be determined in February.

Baronial Polling - List needs three Nominees. Can we get a list of interested parties well in advance?

Overheard and Unattributed (To Protect the Guilty)-

"My penis doesn't need any more enlargement!" (from a female)

"You're aiming at your daughter!" "Moving targets; thats period."

Storvik Yule Revel: Court Report

Unto Baroness Johanna von Sudeborn, Baron Michael Batcok, Arbogast of Diedenhofen, & all others who read this missive, does Pedro de Alcazar send greetings!

Baroness Johanna held two courts at Yule Revel on Jan. 3, 2004:

At the 1st court, her excellency collected taxes from several individuals. She also handed out largesse to the children of Storvik & to her officers.

At the 2nd court, the following items were on the docket:

- Rhiryd ap Gwerstan & Anna de Brabant were thanked for their hard work & were given Johanna's token.
- Teleri Barod was made a member of the Order of the Owl & Apple.
- Sir Gauss & Margaret of Hollingford were given marksmans' badges & Rhiryd ap Gwerstan was given a bowman's badge by Her excellency, representing the kingdom's Archery Marshal.
- Lord Sylvanus Perrin officially handed over his Marshal's tabard to William the Younger, his position as Baronial Warlord to Finn O'Donovan, & tokens to the fighters who completed 60 fights in 60 days.
- Serena & Diego won the contest for best dessert.
- William the Younger won the contest for best table setting.
- Father Christmas made his usual Yule Revel visit to Storvik.

In Service, Pedro

The Storvik Yule Revel was held on Saturday, January 3rd, at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in College Park. The event was attended by 80 gentles, including at least 14 new-comers. A large Curriculum Vitae display was held and 10 different Arts and Sciences classes were taught. All were treated to a delicious lunch and a fabulous feast, prepared by Lady Tirzah, Lady Orla and their dedicated kitchen staff.

Entertainment was provided by Lady Teleri and her harp and Lord William le Younger, his wife and their recorders. Dancing during the afternoon and evening was under the direction of Lord Stefan of Cambion and Lady Victoria Fitzgerald. Her Excellency awarded prizes to Lord William le Younger for the best decorated feast table, and to Lady Teleri Barod for the most creative tax payment. Thanks to all who helped make our first event of the year, a fun and enjoyable one!

Yours In Service,

Anna de Brabant

Special Announcements

There will be no Monday fighter practice February 9, 2004. St Andrews participates in a rotating homeless shelter and the church gym that we use for practice will be converted into a home shelter for the entire week. We will however invade the Ponte Alto Sunday practice on February 8, 2004. Ponte Alto owes the Baroness Johanna a tribute of 5 peppercorns, or was it 3, anyway it has gone unpaid. The fighters of Storvik will go down to Ponte Alto and collect that tribute by force.
