March 15, 933: Magyars defeated by Henry I of Germany

The Barony of Storvik's news magazine

Greetings to the good People of Storvik, and all those who hear my words, from Frau Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik -

I hope this missive finds you in good health, and safe from the winter's storms. The spring solstice will soon herald the return of the spring and tourney season.

I anticipate many journeys this spring, and would be glad to have your company on my travels. My progress dates for shall be:

March 22 - Ponte Alto - St. Paddy's Day Bloodbath

March 29 - Tir-i-don - Investiture

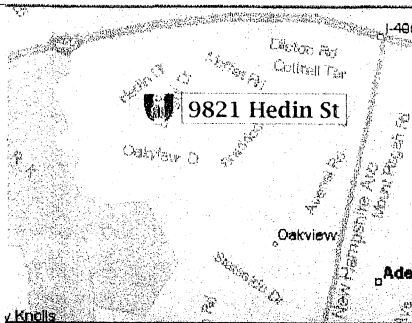

April 5 - Coronation - pending

Because I shall be leaving on Friday, March 28 to travel to Tir-i-don; I shall be 'at home' the previous Friday, March 21.

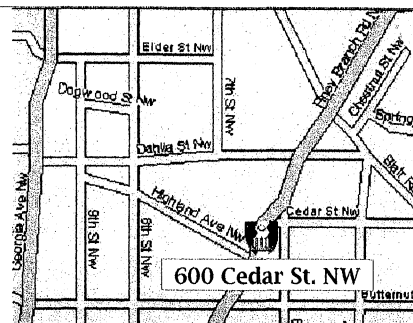

Please join me as you can, and bring newcomers to meet others in the Barony in this informal setting. Should you have any special projects, let me know, and we can work together as need be.

Until we meet again, in the hall or on the field, I remain yours, in service to Storvik and Atlantia-

Preamble

The Barony of Storvik is a Barony of the Kingdom of Atlantia of the Society for Creative Anachronisms that includes the District of Columbia, Prince George County, and a portion of Montgomery County residing within the Washington Beltway. The SCA has a long history in the Metropolitan Washington, DC area. Each SCA group has a distinct culture and flavor. There are so many groups within the area, that it is common for SCA members to tend to associate with a group based upon a commonality of interests, rather than what group they may reside in. In Storvik, we consider members of the Barony to be those members who actively participate in the operation of the Barony. We welcome all to join us, and to make the Barony of Storvik your home. Come to our business meeting, advocate your interests and lead others who share your interests.

Storvik has been tentatively granted permission to use the National Mall (south of Constitution Ave, between 14th and 15th streets) to host an SCA Demo on May 10. This permit is based upon two contingencies--that the land is not being developed (which may still happen) & the Park Service approves our application. Info expected in March. For the demo we need Heavy Fighters, Fencers, Performers, and Artisans.

Our demo area has been divided into three: 1st, a tournament area shared by the heavy fighters and fencers. Interested fighters make themselves known to me. Lord Perrin will be the marshal for the day. Additionally we need a fencing marshal, and fencers. 2nd, a performance area for dancing, acting, singing, etc. I would like to have this organized in the following manner: the "leader" of a group willing to demo contact me with a preferred time allotment and I will schedule them to use the area. 3rd, an arts and science display. These can be shown on a table, or thru live demo.

Some of the things to keep in mind about the site:

1. Bone dry
2. No food or drink provided to spectators; only some for ourselves.
3. No archery.
4. No live steel; however "Olympic style fencing" equipment is allowed (foils--okay; leave the Schlagers at home).
5. We need to provide our own chairs and tables

Even though the demo is tentative, we must get organized now. For those willing to participate please contact Abel Brem of Regnesfolc (abelofregnesfolc@aol.com).
