May 21, 1358: The Jacquerie (or Peasant's Revolt) begins in France

The Barony of Storvik's news magazine

Greetings to the good People of Storvik, and all those who hear my words, from Frau Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik -

As I said in my last letter - tourney season is here, and we are as busy as can be. This month is Garb Wars and Sapphire Joust, and then our Baronial Birthday, the last weekend of May. I will not be 'at home' in May, but I ask that you join me as you can, On Progress, at the events coming up.

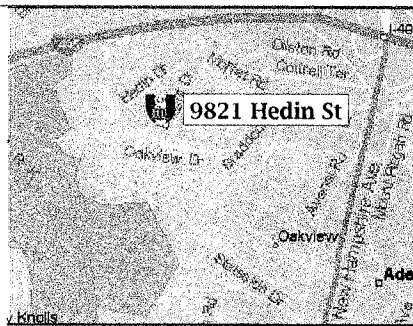

I will be at Bright Hills for the Baronial Investiture at Garb Wars.

The plans for Storvik encampment at Sapphire is shaping up, so if you have preregistered, let me know you will be joining us, and what you can bring to contribute towards camp. On Saturday evening before dark, I plan to have a pot luck dinner. Contact me should you have any questions. Preregistration to camp with a group was necessary; but should they allow us extra space, we may be able to fit another tent or two in.

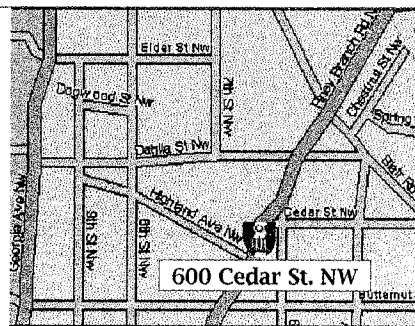

Lord William the Younger has been diligently planning for Baronial Birthday and championship. I require that all who are interested in become my Champion in any of the five competitions make themselves known to me. If you have questions on these positions of honor, ask.

Until we meet again, in the hall or on the field, I remain yours, in service to Storvik and Atlantia-

Johanna

May 10--Storvik: Knightly Day on the Mall

ArtStorvik has been granted permission to use the National Mall (south of Constitution Ave, between 14th and 15th streets) to host an SCA Demo on May 10 from 8am to 6pm. For the demo we are seeking attendance of Heavy Fighters, Fencers, Performers, & Artisans to amuse the crowd, & to demonstrate activities available in the SCA

Our land has been divided into four areas: The 1st & 2nd sections are tournament areas for heavy fighters & fencers. All interested fighters contact me. Lord Perrin (Storvik Knight Marshal) will be the marshal-in-charge for the day. The 3rd area is for perfollows: The "leader" of a group willing to demo contact me with a preferred time allotment; I will schedule them for. The 4th area would be for A&S display by showing them on a table, or thru live demo.

Some of the things to keep in mind about the site:

1. Bone dry
2. We provide no food or drink to spectators. We can however keep some for ourselves.
3. No archery
4. No live steel; "Olympic style fencing" equipment is allowed (so fencing foils, epees, sabers, and schlaggers are ok as long as they pass SCA Fencing Marshal inspection).
5. All fencing weps. must be in a bag until they are on the list field
6. SCAdians cannot mix with the crowd wearing armor or fencing equipment.
7. Only rattan weps. for heavy are allowed (no fiberglass spears).
8. We need to provide our own chairs and tables.
9. There is no parking, but we can arrange a drop off point since we are bordered on 15th street.

We meet, once again, at Rocks 4-H Camp in Street, Maryland for a whirlwind weekend of Artistic challenge, grand Tourneys, The Investiture and enough activity to keep everyone busy.

For those who have tried something new this year - we have the "Look what I've started" display. Those who have already mastered these arts are encouraged to leave helpful comments on cards provided.  This years Garb Team competition will have Professional and Non-professional divisions.

For the defenders amongst us we shall have single and melee combat for our Heavy fighters, a variety of intriguing challenges for our Rapier folk and yes, Archery. On Sunday we shall host a war practice and there will be authorizations.

For those who wish other activities there will be dancing during the day and Children's activities to keep the youngsters busy. Lunch will be provided to all on Saturday and our own Bright Hills Cooks Guild will be providing the feast. For the hungry traveler there will be Travelers Fare available for a modest fee on Friday evening. As always we welcome our merchant folk and encourage them to join us.
