Their Excellencies's Message

Greetings Good People of Storvik Storvik!

Thank you so much for a beautiful investiture! A day that we will not soon forge

Coronation was very very wet, BUT we were there in all of Storvik's splendor. We hope all who went had as good a time as we did. Sadly, the rain moved the morning and never really let up. The fighting was scrubbed, but the ceremony and feast were very good. We look forward to supporting Robert and Denise in their reign! And wish Janos and Rachel a well deserved rest from the burdens of Crown.

Our Embroidery Guild from Greater Storvik made a presentation of a truly coveted gift the Egg Basket which many hours of work and skill had created. We'd also like to mention our own New Chatelaine Ynes Garcia who received FIRST prize in the A&S competition for her 16th Century knitting stocking. Boy! I wish I could have used them that night.... Our faithful Seneschal and Archery Marshal, Ryryd placed second in the Archery Competition. Special Mentions to: William the Younger and his daughter Rachel, who RETURNED to the site Sunday am and helped clean the completely saturated field of canvas including our own which surmounted rain. Baroness Johanna for coming our own castle AFTER the event and helping put out our wet canvas and other stuff....Many Thanks for the Inspiration. *hug*

The following weekend Baroness Elizabeth went to "Defending the Gate" in the canton of Suddontor. A splendid day with heavy fighting and COMBAT ARCHERS! 6 Storvik Heavy fighters posted to the event as well as the Storvik Combat Archers. Baroness Bess tried her hand at Thrown Weapons and actually hit the target a few times! Vivat to all Storviki that supported our neighbors to the south!

The Tournament of Chivalry in Raleigh N.C. the next weekend. Another beautiful day with Storvik present. We set up our pavilion on the field and put out all the finest decoration that Storvik has created over the years. Low and behold, we were called into court and presented with the Best field presentation award!

Quite an honor! Two Storviki traveled DAYTRIPPING to N.C to participate. Jocelyn arrived Saturday AM for the tournament and Bridgit arrived Sunday AM for the Belletrix fighting class. Daytripping to NC... that in itself deserved recognition!

We hosted a meeting of retainers and potential retainers Saturday April 23, many good ideas were bantered around, Barbara took the hood project home with her. I expect we will have Baronial retainer hood and mantles soon! Anyone interested in retaining for us please call or talk to us in person!

Sunday April 24 we went to Archery Practice then to the Cooks Guild meeting.

Baron and Baroness: Thanks to the populace for their hard work and a wonderful Investiture. Coronation was a mud bath. Have been busy attending baronial meetings and guilds. Will be providing Baronial Progress in e-mail and newsletter. If anyone is interested in being a retainer they should discuss it directly with the B&B.

Seneschal: Two new deputies, Gregor and Ceara. Seneschal report is due soon and requires event reports.

Archery Marshall: 7 shooters this week. Nice practice.

A&S: Competitions were held at Investiture with great success. Newcomer's is well attended (many Storvikees, one newcomer). Scheduling is done through Pennsic and will be posted to website soon.

Herald: Consult Table was offered at Investiture. No pending submissions. Badge for the Order of the Faring is being developed/debated.

Chatelaine: Looking at moving Newcomers Night to a more central location. Planning to spend more time at fighter's practice meeting folks. Loaner gear being parred down.

Chronicler: Unable to attend

Exchequer: TURN IN RECEIPTS. $5500 in checking at the moment. Fighters practice check is due, but amount is in question. Will send in traditional amount and wait to be corrected. Signature cards should be back from California soon. Inventories being accomplished.

Knight Marshall: Practices are being well attended. Have added Captains of the Spears and Archers to command structure of baronial fighters. Required report is pending.

Minister of Minors (by proxy): Children's activities at Investiture seemed successful. Wide praise.

Web Minister: Yahoo Groups calendar being more widely used, though times are problematic.

Event Reports:

Investiture: $3K+ Gross receipts, ~$1300 profit. Good site for other winter events, but poor for summer fighting. Feast highly praised by populace.

Upcoming Events:

Novice Tourney: Baron Targus will be Marshall in Charge. Multiple MoLs being sought. Bring us CLASSES (and instructors). Food "merchants" as fund raisers must be carefully advertised to not run afoul of MD food service regulations. "Botulism is okay, as long as its not for profit" said Ryryd

Post Pennsic Revel: Still hard to reach Autocrat

Baronial Birthday: Will mark Storvik 25th Anniversary. Please think if you have items of historical significance to contribute for a display of Storvik history.

Old Business:

Banners: Done. Looking to add spear points to tops of poles.

Coronets: Field coronets (lightweight versions) are still being sought.

Financial Policy: No progress.

Inventory: Pictures being taken.

Pennsic: Richard Wynn is land agent, not Ryryd

Storage: No progress.

Meeting Site: Motion to find a public location to hold meetings moved and passed. Sir Gauss and Dame Brenna thanked for their long-term service. Seneschallete will research to determine two issues: 1) Potential locations and costs; and 2) Day of the week most favored by populace.

New Tintinablum: No progress.

New Business:

$50 moved and passed to buy materials for Storvik handtowels
$50 moved and passed for Scriptorium to buy paper, paint and ink.
$50 moved and passed to buy fabric to construct more fighter's tabbards

William the Younger proposed moving youth fighter's practice to his home. It was explained that since parents must be present at practice that this would be in accordance with the requirement for chaperons at youth events in private homes. It was noted this decision is clearly within the purvey of the Knight's Marshall.

Scriptorium has been resurrected to the 3rd Sunday of the month at Karl and Samara's house.
