Unto the populace of Storvik do Corun and Brenna give greetings,

Though winter has tried to maintain its grasp upon our fair lands, it seems that spring is winning out. The cold is receding, though slowly, and the flowers are blooming once again. We can but hope that summer will not be as unberably hot as winter was cold.

There is much to report since last we met in these pages. Our Chronicler, Lord Brendan, has changed jobs rather suddenly, and it was this which caused the April Drekkar to go missing. We hope the populace understands and will join us as we wish him well in his new job. But, to keep you all up to date, here is a brief synopsis of what has happened since March;

Storvik and Ponte Alto jointly put on the Seadog Tavern event. The event was well attended and quite fun. Special appearances by Famine, Pestilence, War and Death were notable, and the rat and cockroach races were...um...enjoyable. All in all a good time was had by one and all.

Our new King and Queen were crowned in Marinus. We welcome the return of Cuan and wish Her Majesty, Bera Thorbjorn, all luck and happiness on Her first time to the throne of Atlantia.

At the final court of their Excellencies Logan and Arielle, our own Lady Felicia of Storvik was made a Companion of the Order of the Pearl. This was done for her artistry as a musician. Many's the time Lady Felicia has graced our halls with her music, and this award is well and truly earned. Vivat Lady Felicia!

Lochmere held its Knight of the Heart event, and it was a wonderful pas d'armes. There were many challenges and all the fighters, both challengers and defenders, fought well and bravely. Among the defenders of Lochmere were some of Storvik's fighters. Oswulf the Grey and Partick Ravensclaw helped keep the honour of Lochmere and we thank them for lending Storvik's strength to our cousins.

May is going to be a busy month. Immediately upcoming is Celt Wars, our joint event with Anglesea. This will be a camping event, the first of the season for us, and we look forward to seeing you all there. Following that will be On Target, the annual archery event in Lochmere where many will compete for the coveted Golden Arrow of Lochmere. After this is Crown Tourney, combined this year with Garb Wars in Bright Hills. Then comes Emerald Joust followed by the Storvik Barons Champions event which is again combined with Novice Tourney. These last three are also camping events, so if you don't get your gear out for Celt Wars you'll have three more opportunities in May.

That's about all for now. We wish you all health and happiness, and we hope to see you at one of the events in May. Until then we remain,

In service,
Corun and Brenna
Baro Baronessa Que Storvik

From the Chronicler

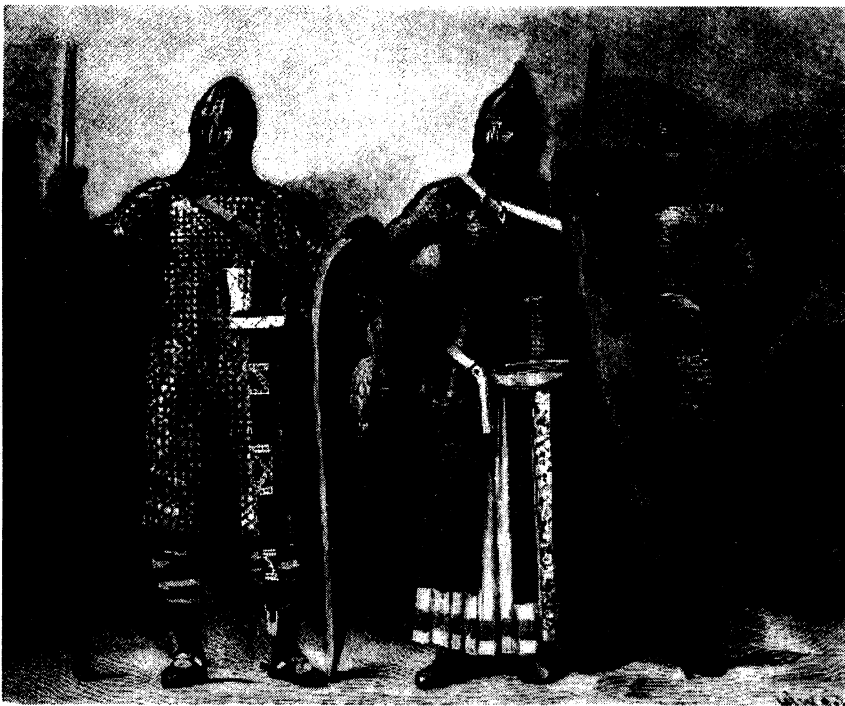

Well, life is certainly never dull. Your Chronicler has just changed mundane jobs, from one that was hectic but regular to one that is (currently) more hectic and irregular. As a result, the April issue slipped late enough to be of little worth and a decision was made to not publish it. We will be honoring the issue you all are due through some other means, quite possibly the Tintinnabulum or some other Storvik creation that is deemed suitable. If you have any ideas, please contact myself and/or their Excellencies with your ideas as soon as possible as we'd like to catch up as soon as we may.

For those of you following the cover pictures with interest, I've decided to include the April cover (which was already printed) as an insert in this month's issue. Personally, I find them to be too gorgeous to simply toss away. April's scene depicts the arrival of spring, hope and new life - the grass is green and a newly betrothed couple are exchanging rings in the foreground, accompanied by friends and family. The chateau is another one of the Duc's, that of Dourdan.

The Drekkar cover shows the May jaunt, a pageant celebrating the "joli mois de Mai" in which one had to wear green garments known as livree de mai. The riders are young noblemen and women, with princes and princesses being visible. In the background is a chateau thought to be the Palais de la Cite in Paris.

Yours, in service,

Brendan the Shameless

From the Arts and Sciences Minister

There are two upcoming arts & sciences events that I want to bring to your attention. First, at Emerald Joust the Barony of Caer Mear will be sponsoring a Curriculum Vitae competition for the generalists in the Kingdom. Your entry is one representative sample of every kind of art or science you have ever done in or for the SCA. Think back to your early days and make a list of all you have learned or done. Put together a sample of each art or science for your entry. Photographs are allowed. Each entrant is allotted 1/2 of a feast table for their exhibit. Documentation will count for extra points. I hope many of you will participate and demonstrate that the arts and sciences are thriving in Storvik.

Second, July 12 is the Kingdom A&S Festival. Artisans from around Atlantia will be holding working demos. There will be a number of competitions, including a judged competition, a children's exhibition, and a Peers' Prize Tourney. The judged competition includes work in six categories: Fiber Arts, Paint & Pen, Durable Goods, Consumable Goods, Performance Arts, and Composition (research papers, musical composition, and poetry). If you wish to compete in Composition, you must pre-register before May 31st; contact me directly for details

Announcement

The Shire of Stierbach is pleased to invite the Barony of Storvik to our Fighter's Picnics. This Sunday event is a combination Fighter's Practice and A&S gathering to be held at Briar Patch Park in Sterling, VA.

The dates of the Fighter's Picnics are: May 11, June 8, June 29, July 13 and July 27th, beginning at 1 PM until dark, or whenever the fighters get tired of hitting each other!

Take your best route to either Rt. 7 or Rt. 28, head towards Leesburg and watch for the Sterling Blvd. turnoff. There are signs on either road. Follow Sterling Blvd. to E. Frederick Street. The park is on the corner and there is plenty of parking.

We have a covered area available with picnic tables and there is a large grassy area that is perfect for fighting and another area that can be used for archery, if anyone is interested. We have a few targets. (None of them have faces- use your imagination!)

Please bring your banners, pennants, table clothes, your latest A&S project and picnic with us beginning at 1 PM. The County of Loudoun does not permit alcohol at its parks, however, we will be providing lemonade and other refreshments. (Please remember the Chirurgeon General's warning about the Hazards of Stierbach Water!). The Shire will be pleased to provide lunch for any Storvik fighter who attends! Please call Rowan Berran at 703/450-8092 and let her know that you will be there.

Celt Wars

May 2-4

Monstrous morning	-	monstrous season
hosts in turmoil	-	kings cast down
necks broken	-	a red sun
three hosts crushed	-	by the host of Ulster
about Conchobor	-	woman struggle
herds driven	-	the morning following
heroes felled	-	hounds cut down
horses mangled	-	tunics torn
the earth drinking	-	spilt blood of gathered hordes.

(from Thomas Kinsella's translation of the Táin Bó Cuailnge)

Beltane is here and, yet again, Storvik has heard rumblings that the Celts don't have quite enough cattle for their celebrations. Through our spies we heard, a confederation of Celtic clans has volunteered our Barony's herds for their greedy consumption. Storvik requests your aid in protecting our herds and fields. Or, if you're so inclined, you can join members of Anglesea, the Concusare, the KinderFodder, the Head Clan, Delradia, and Clan Preachaine (or, the Celts) on the field in the attempted (we hope!) Cattle Raid on Storvik. The days fighting will include Cattle Raids, Grand Mêléeés, and a War God Tournament, and will continue until every fighter is lying on the field in pools of their own blood (figuratively, of course). There will be A&S Competitions for the best woading and the best early period crafts; minimal documentation required (no need to write us a term paper), and a Shoot the Barbarian Booth to entertain the masses. Sir Xenophon has even graciously offered to grill up the cattle who accidentally die in the fray. Also, we have heard that they will welcome your herds of sheep, your flocks of geese, and bevies of swine (Celts get so darned hungry pillaging). The site is discretely wet, and once we're all wet enough, we'll sing and play quaint Celtic musical favorites.

The site is Watkins Park, 301 Watkins Park Drive, Largo, MD 20772. This site has water, toilets, and showers!

Site set-up begins at 12:00 noon, Friday May 2, If you arrive to early - You are drafted! Site closes 2:00 P.M. Sunday, May 4. If you stay to late - You are drafted!

The costs are as follows: $5.00 Off-Board; $10.00 On-Board, children under six are free, children 6-12 are half price.

Reservations must be received no later than April 28, 1997. Make checks payable to: SCA, Inc/Barony of Storvik.

The Autocrat for this event is: Courtney of Anglesea (Courtney Coulson) 7901 Pebble Brook Court, Springfield, VA 22153, (703) 451-8655. email: bcmartin@pen.k12.va.us

DIRECTIONS

Make your way to the east side of the DC Beltway, I-95, exit at Route 214 East toward Largo, MD. Watkins Park Drive will be on your right.

Tournament of Lady Meede

May 3

Come one, come all to the Incipient Canton of Cymnewydd in the Barony of Black Diamond for a day of tournaments, ladies and fun. As Lady Meede showed William Langland the way to truth and happiness we will honor her with the main tournament of the day being a Ladies' Choice Tourney. In this tournament the consort will choose the weapons form of the fighter in half the rounds and of the fighter's opponent in other rounds (fighters, even if you only have one weapons form, come and play!) There will also be meleés and a rapier tournament if interest warrants. The tourneys will start at 11am. The day's events will be open to the public so bring your pretty stuff and get ready for questions.

The A&S Competition will be favors presented by a consort to their fighter. Favors will be judged for creativity, originality and authenticity.

The feast will be two wonderful removes cooked by Aeronrhea. Any dietary concerns should be addressed to the autocrat.

The site is a town park and is very, very, very DRY. All pets must be on leashes and cleaned up after. The site opens at 10am and closes at 9pm. There is no camping on site. Crash space is available in Blacksburg, and there are many local hotels. Please contact the autocrat for details.

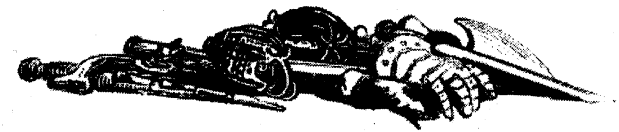

Following the day's festivities and feasting a postrevel will be held in town. Directions will be available on site.

The event is free to any and all who join us. The feast is a mere $5 per person and must be reserved by May 1, 1997. Please make checks payable to the Canton of Cymnewydd/SCA, Inc. and mail reservations to the autocrat.

The autocrats are Baroness Magdalena Kestrel and Baron Wulfbrand Weigand (Mel Dietrich and Mark Cochran), 907 Kabrich Street, Blacksburg, VA 24060, (540) 552-7410 (NLT 10pm).

DIRECTIONS

The site is Nellies Cave Park in Blacksburg. Take your best route to 460 West to Blacksburg (Virginia Tech). Take 460 West Business (Main Street) to Blacksburg, after the second light turn right onto Marlinton Street. Go to the stop sign and turn right onto Grissom Lane. SCA signs will be posted. Nellies Cave Park is on your left.

Spring's End

May 10

Please join the Barony of Ponte Alto in welcoming in the summer with a day of fighting and arts. This is your opportunity to show off your heraldry in as many forms as possible (banners, guidons, surcotes, tabards, etc.) and fight (in as many forms as possible). There will be both single combat and melee' tourneys as well as authorizations. The tourney will include a Passage of Arms. Noncombatants are encouraged to bring instruments, games, and any A&S projects in progress with them to share their talents with the populace.

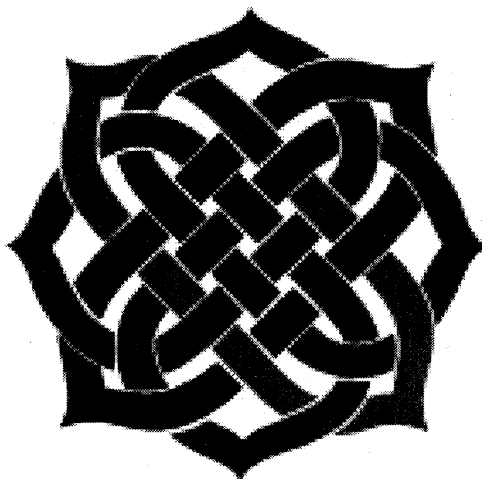

A light lunch will be served to all. The evening feast will be a potluck, with the Barony providing Roasted Beef and Ham, and will be outdoors near the tourney field. The site for this event is Lake Fairfax Park in Reston, VA. As this site is fairly open, feel free to bring your pavilions and day shades to add beauty and shade for the day. Please note that the site is DRY!! Site opens at 10am, and closes at 7pm/Dusk. Fees for this event are: $5 off board, $8 on-board. (Off-board fee includes lunch). Children 6-12 need only pay half, those under 5 are guests of the Barony. Please make checks payable to Ponte Alto/SCA, Inc.

For more info and to make reservations, please contact the Autocrat, Lord Thomas of Calais (Tom Hundley), 6280 Edsall Rd #204, Alexandria, VA 22312, (703) 751-2101.

NOTICE: Contrary to prior announcements, this event WILL NOT BE VIDEOTAPED. For more information on this, contact the seneschal, Lady Aislynn Fyrlocc at (703) 569-9743 (orkspears@fdic.gov).

DIRECTIONS

Take your best route to the Capitol Beltway in Northern VA. Take Exit 12 (Dulles Toll Rd) and go West. Take the Toll Road to Hunter Mill Rd (Exit 14). Toll will be $0.75. Go north on Hunter Mill Rd to Baron Cameron Ave. Go Left on Baron Cameron and take your first Left onto Lake Fairfax Dr. SCA signs will guide you into and through the park from there.

May 23-26

The Barony of Caer Mear and The House of The Red are proud to welcome all good gentles to competition both marshal and fair. Come to the rolling hills of Maidens, Virginia for chivalry, song, dance, and an all around good time! Join us for 4 days of fun and festivities! The site opens at 1pm on Friday afternoon and closes at Noon on Monday.

Saturday: For those of a competitive nature, there will be many different challenges to whet the appetite. For Arts and Sciences minded people, a Curriculum Vitae will be held in the feast hall. These relics can be anything, from a suit of armor to a rock hard loaf of bread, as long as there is a colorful tale or display to relate the relics importance in the groups history...but please, people do not qualify as relics. For martial activities, there will be an Emperor's choice tourney (more rules and information to come). For Rapier, the Queen's choice tournament. A cambok tournament (yes, with teams and such) will be held for the enjoyment of those in a team sports frame of mind, as well as a bardic competition for those who wish to express themselves in song or story. Rose Tour III

The gardeners of Atlantia are invited on the Third annual ROSE TOUR. As in previous years, the Tour is designed to give SCA gardeners a look at established plants of period roses in full bloom, with opportunities to buy or order what you admire. Mundane clothing is best for this mundane tour. The gathering point is Mistress Elien of sheffield's house, just off I-95 in Laurel, MD, at EIGHT THIRTY AM SHARP!!!!, to get into car pools. (Note: If you cannot be that early, we can give directions for where we will be later in the morning).

The first part is a twenty-minute drive to Karen Burroughs' garden of old roses. This magnificent private garden has been featured in national publications. (Be prepared to take notes of varieties you like.) We will arrive at nine and take about an hour.

From there we go to the Heritage Rosarium, about a three-minute drive. The Rosarium is a display garden of old roses. This is not a garden like Karen's, but focuses instead on the rose plants in collection. The Rosarium also sells rose plants. For any variety there or at Karen's, you can order cuttings rooted for pickup the following spring. But many of the varieties are there for sale already, "extra" cuttings from last year's orders, also established plants in larger pots.

The herd instinct will take us to an eatery for lunch. After lunch, we will terrorize Behnke Nurseries in Beltsville, MD, which has a fair selection of period (among the modern) plants. They're pricey, but the selection is wonderful and the quality top-notch.

The day will end at Mistress Elien's, with a tour of her own antique and period roses, and a Plant Exchange. Bring what you have extras of (it doesn't have to be period) and take home what other people bring. You do not have to bring to be able to take...

There is NO CHARGE since there are no expenses. But bring plenty of money to spend! And please, please call one of the co-organizers for directions, and to make sure we don't leave you behind if you're late: Mistress Elien of Sheffield (Michelle Hunter) 9303 Iron Stone Court, Laurel, MD (301) 725-5371 AND Master James of Rutland (Jim Dronenburg) 3536 Cemetery Circle, Knoxville, MD 21758, (301) 834-6515.

Crash space can be arranged with advance notice.

DIRECTIONS

From I-95 (N or S) exit on Route 216 towards Laurel, MD. At the first stop light (All Saints Road) turn left. Go to end where A.S. Road T-intersects into Whiskey Bottom Road and turn right. Then take the first right (King's Grant) and then the first left (Ironstone Court). The house is on the corner of Ironstone. You'll know it by the roses.

Novice Tourney and Storvik Baronial Championship

May 30 - June 1

This year's Novice Tourney and Storviki Baronial Championship Event will be held May 30-June 1st at beautiful Patuxent River Park, in Upper Marlboro, Maryland. The Baron and Baroness of Storvik invite one and all to join together for a weekend of fighting, feasting and festivity.

This year's fighting is being organized and overseen by Lord Oswulf the Grey. Novice fighters will have an opportunity to authorize. Multiple lists will be run, including the traditional Novice List. Novice and championships lists will be held on Saturday, and will include heavy weapons, light weapons, and archery. As a change of pace, and in preparation for War point archery, the archery marshal will offer a clout shoot.

In addition, there will be competitions in Bardic Arts and Arts & Sciences, as well as an open A&S display. The A&S competition will be held in two categories: first, items to be donated to the Kingdom to be auctioned off to benefit the Kingdom travel fund; second, heraldic display. Lists will be open to all, and there will be prizes for all victors, with the Baronial championship going to the highest-ranking Storviki.

The site opens at 7pm on Friday and closes Sunday at 4pm. The lists will open at 10am on Saturday, with armor inspection and authorizations until 11:30, and competition thereafter. A splendid feast will be offered by our Head Cook, MacGregor, on Saturday night; those wishing to join us on-board should pre-register, as there will be very limited on-board space available at the door.

Alcohol on site is restricted to beer in kegs; we plan to make Good Beer freely available to those with proof of age at the Lusty Wench & Lucky Knave Tavern, brought to you by Tavernkeeper Mym the Minx and the wenches and knaves of House Drunken Badger. You are encouraged to "tip the wenches" (and knaves) but as we cannot take your coin, a more inventive approach may prove rewarding.

There will be children's activities, including arts & crafts, a nature walk, a class on "court manners," and opportunities for service, but a parent must be available to participate with the child; no baby-sitting will be provided.

This is a camping event, and separate specific firesides will be designated for evening entertainment (Bardic circle, dancing and drumming, and a quiet area). We are hoping to have a significant Bardic presence at this event and have set aside a beautiful grassy area, surrounded by woods, for the evening's Bardic fireside.

Because our ability to accept money on site is limited, you are strongly urged (PLEASE) to pre-register and pre-pay. Pre-registration fees are: on-board adult, $12; on-board 12-18, $10; on-board 6-12, $6; 5 and under our guests. Off-board fee is $6 for adults, $4 for those over 5. Fees will be slightly higher at the door. Please make checks payable to Storvik/SCA, Inc. Please send reservations to Lady Caitlin (see below).

Autocrats: Lord Oswulf the Grey (Sam Hunt), 8329 Donahue Drive, New Carrollton, MD, (pager) (301) 506-7284, email: wanderer@nmaa.org AND Lady Caitilin Cheannlaidir (Rise Sheridan-Peters), 7002 Sycamore Ave., Takoma Park, MD, 20912, (301) 270-1207 (NLT 9:30pm), email: caitlin@phosphor-ink.com.
