Unto to the populace of Storvik do Corun and Brenna. Baron and Baroness give greeting

It bears repeating that we are grateful those who attended the Pennsic Post Revel. It was a grand time with much music and dancing and wonderful stories. Though Igor could not join us, and therefore could not be rejoined with the cry of "Tell us a story. Uncle Igor". we were regaled with a song he had written, sung well and enthusiastically by Sir Velodia. Perhaps we can get the two of them to reprise it at the upcoming Yule Revel. But more on that later.

As so many of you know, being an officer in a Barony is no easy task. Thus has it been for Lord Brendan, our former Chronicler. Due to the encroachment of mundane life, he was forced to step down from the office. Kendrick Wayfarer has stepped in temporarily to put out a late September issue as well as this one you hold. We did get a suc. I mean volunteer to take on the task of Chronicler full time, and we welcome Lord Arbogast. Our thanks to you Milord. Know that we have also had at least one other person who is new to Storvik, having come to us from Bright Hills, Lord Seanin, graciously volunteer to be deputy. By now Kendrick, Arbogast and Seanin have gotten in touch with one another and are planning the next issue. The Drekkar sails again. All subscriptions will be moved back in order to cover for those issues which did not make press

While we are on the topic of officers, our Chatelaine, Lady Lilandra, has found that having a new baby is more work than she at first thought, and so is looking for someone to take over her office (as Chatelaine, not mother). The Chatelaine (or Castellán) is an important position as this is the first person a newcomer encounters upon arriving in any group. It is this officer who holds the Silver Key to the loaner closet which contains clothing and feast gear a newcomer may not yet own. Anyone who is interested may contact Lady Lil. Her number is still in the cover, though please do not call later than 9pm. New babies and new mothers both need their rest.

Lady Johanna is also looking for a deputy Seneschale. The office of Seneschale is one of the most crucial jobs any group can have. In fact, no group, whether Barony, Shire, Canton or College can be a recognized group without one. Lady Johanna has been our Seneschale since just before we put on the Coronets of the Barony, and is coming up on the beginning of her fourth year. The person who would become her deputy should be one who is willing to learn the office completely. It would be hoped, that this person would also be interested in taking over from her at the end of her term (or if Shannon wins Crown and she becomes Princess of Atlantia). Anyone interested should please contact her directly.

We wish to personally thank all of our officers, past and present, for all the fine, hard work they have done for us. This Barony would not have run so smoothly without you.

We mentioned at the Post Pennsic Revel that we wish to institute a Baronial Arts and Sciences Order and that we are looking for a name for it. Please send all submissions to either of us or to Lady Johanna.

Remember that the Storvik Yule Revel is coming up (we told you there'd be more later). It will be tax time, and our coffers need refilling. We would be grateful to any artisans who wish to make small trinkets that can be handed out as prizes for competitions or simply as a way of saying thank you to someone. It is always better to give something that was made lovingly and skillfully rather than something that was simply purchased. Besides, it shows off your talent, and we are always looking at that in order that we might be able to promote someone to one of the Orders and help set yet another glowing jewel in the Crown of Atlantia.

We look forward to seeing you all between now and Yule revel. Until that time we remain,

In service,
Corun and Brenna
Baro et Baronessa que Storvik

- Yule Revel - Site cannot be reserved until the end of September. Event flyer to be mailed for the December Acorn.

Hunt & Feast in Honor of Saint Sebastian

October 3 - 5

The crash of deer precedes the brassy call of the horns and the sounds of the beaters moving through the faire woods of this Shire. All who gather to watch the hunt will bear witness to the strength of arms and keenness of sight of the fair men and maids who meet to test their skill at bow. The Shire of Highland Foorde invites all target and combat archers, as well as all rapier fighters to test their skills against friend and foe alike in a full day of archery and rapier competition.

There will be royal rounds available throughout the day to test traditional archery skills. You may shoot more than once, as the highest score will be used. To challenge your accuracy, there will be shooting from a tower and a unique slit shoot. We also have a moving target shoot to test your patience, as well as your arms and eye. Each of these shoots will take place twice throughout the day, so there will be ample opportunity for you to get scored in every scenario. A roving range based on a hunt will keep you on the run as you (fictitiously) go in search of our feast's main course!! At the conclusion of the day, a shoot-off will take place to determine the overall victor. Many glorious prizes will be distributed at the end of the day to honor those who placed highly in each shoot.

To further test your skills, there will be combat archery with our rapier fighters. Our Rapier Marshall and his assistants will be available to explain and teach combat archery/rapier theory and how it works. He will be setting up a variety of scenarios challenging for both archers and rapier combatants!

The "catch of the hunt" will be prepared under the guidance of Baron Silver by the Highland Foorde Cooking Guild. The feast will consist of smoked and roasted game and fowl served with a variety of roasted vegetables and followed by a sumptuous dessert. Feast spaces are limited, advance reservations are highly recommended. Bards who wish to perform works at feast telling the story of St. Sebastian or works with archery as a central theme are asked to contact the autocrat.

The site is Hager House in Hagerstown, MD. The site opens 4 p.m. October 3 and closes noon October 5. The site is discreetly wet after sundown and absolutely NO PETS.

Cost for this event is $7.00 until September 15 for site and feast, $9.00 thereafter and at the gate. $5.00 for children 10 and under. $2.00 at gate for day trip without feast. For reservations, please send the society name(s) and mundane name(s), (and note if any are children) along with your check made out to: Shire of Highland Foorde/SCA, Inc. to: Magdalena Zaba (Marj Burger), 6402 Quinn Rd, Frederick, MD 21701

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Populace of Atlantia!! The Shire of Seareach does invite one and all to attend the Crown Tournament of Their Royal Majesties, Logan and Arielle!!

The Shire has planned a wonderous day of merriment and martial skills to tempt all comers. Besides the Crown Tournament to decide the successors to the Atlantain Throne, there will be an open fighter's tourney. The Fighter's tourney will be a 3-man team free-for-all melee. Get your team together and come fight for bragging rights upon the field of battle!! So as not to offend our more genteel fighting brethren, a tournament of Skill and Wit is scheduled for our kingdom's fencers.

In keeping with Their Majesties theme, Atlantia's children, the A&S competition will focus on the needs of Atlantia's smalls, to include games, stories, boffer weapons, and anything relating to the education and entertainment of the children of our Kingdom. Bring your best smalls-related item to be judged by the smalls. All items brought for the competition will be donated to the Chatelaines and Castellans of Atlantia.

Not only will the A&S competition be centered around the children, but the Shire will also be hosting a children's boffer hunt. During the Crown Tourney on Saturday there will be a boffer woods battle for all children ages 8-14. This is a free-for-all melee style tourney in which the children will hunt to kill the "beasts" to be served at feast!!

Friday night, being All Hallow's Eve (and Seareach being Seareach), there will be a... PARTY (what did you expect?)!! There will be trick-or-treating and a halloween festival for the kids (bring candy), and later on a non-medieval garb costume party for the adults.

Feast will be a groaning board meat festival, including roast turkey, venison, and Mock Haggis! A dessert table of fabulous and tempting delights will be open to all. Feast is being prepared by Lady Kaille the Crone (Sue Lisak), and any dietary concerns should be directed to her @ (910) 392-2543 (NLT 10 pm, please). Entertainment is scheduled for feast, with dancing and a bardic circle to follow.
