Monthly Barony Meeting
Baroness Brenna's Abode
600 Cedar St, NW Washington, DC 20012

Her Excellency's Message

From Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik, happy and thankful Greetings to the people of Storvik,

What a wonderful summer we shared! Our pace has not slowed since Baronial Championships. First we had Novice Day, then Pennsic, and then, last night, the Post Pennsic Revel.

I greatly enjoyed hearing the stories - and not just those told in the competitions. And the food! Thank you all for your efforts. And many thanks to you, Alastair and all of those who helped make the event.

The old adage of absence making the heart grow fonder is entirely false; It seems the more we work together, the more I love Storvik.

The summer is ending, but we shall remain just as busy throughout the fall. In a few days, I shall be traveling to southern Atlantia to bear witness to the Coronation of our new King and Queen, and swear fealty to Them. Shortly thereafter, we needs must follow our Crown to War against the East - Kingdom Crusades. I know I can count on the support of Storvik in this, as in all things.

There is much to do, and much fun to be had! Please join us at the monthly Barony meetings as we plan our endeavors. These are open to all. Your skills, your concerns, and your opinions are valued; bring them to our officers, that Storvik will continue to grow strong. Also, I again extend a warm invitation to all of you to visit me. I am 'at home' on the third Friday of each month. Please pass these invitations on to all newcomers that they may join us in our preparations for the coming season.

Until we next meet, I remain yours, in service to Our Dream,

Johanna

Barony Meeting I Minutes—August 1

Attending Citizens of Storvik—

Nina of the Lost Caverns, Johanna von Sudeborn, Sylvenus Perrin, Ulric the Fox, Gauss Magnusson, Brenna of Storvik, Arbogast of Diedenhofen, Evantia, Fiona Ni David, Morin

Officer Reports—

Baroness: Painted sixty-odd favors for the war by hand. Fevronia says that the Baronial Champion's Tabard will be ready by War.

Seneschal: The Barony is fine, but he is late.

Arts & Sciences: Caitlin has been attacked by real life and doesn't play well with others any more—she needs a replacement. Morin volunteered to work as Deputy A&S, with the idea to replace Caitlin.

Chatelaine: New people are coming out of the woodwork.

Chronicler: Needs a volunteer to make someone take notes during the Barony Meeting at Pennsic. Asks if we should increase the number of extra issues; consensus is yes, increase by five.

Exchequer (by proxy): Devora is now officially our Exchequer

Herald: No report as yet.

Knight Marshall: New Marshall's Rules have been approved; to come out shortly.

Minister of the Lists (by proxy): Authorizations from Novice Tourney will be available at Pennsic.

Web Minister (by proxy): Web Page to be updated.

Old Business—

Event Signs—Ulric & Fiona have completed them.

Troll Signs—Plywood held for ransom at Brenna's (but what is the asking price?).

New Business—

An event on October 21: Nina has gotten a new site at Rosaryville State Park—entrance directly off of Route 301. Event to be called Viking Wars. Lots of open space; large sheltered picnic area; bathhouse with flush toilets; water and hose connections; alcohol, pets, and merchants permitted! Normal rental fee of $400 to be reduced significantly because of Demo (see below).

New Business (Continued)—

Demo on September 24: At above site. To occur in conjunction with a mundane event that the site administrators were already running; could be great for recruiting. We need fighters, rapier, merchants, dancers, singers.

Chronicler will research Event costs and comparisons to provide a more accurate baseline for future Event pricing.

Chronicler also wants spiff pictures from Pennsic for the Drekkar

Events Reports—

Novice Tourney: Made $647.91 in profit. 143 attendees. Traditional request by Autocrat for use of some of the take—give a large hunk to pay for the rental on next year's Fighter Practice.

Upcoming Events—

Post-Pennsic Revel—Still proceeding right on schedule.

Overheard and Unattributed (to protect the guilty)—

"We need to flock the sheep again."

"Demer has been involved in many a pig episode..."

"I'm no longer the Exchequer, so that's not a problem."

"She will display the cash at Pennsic."

"No roughage at the feast."

Barony of Lochmere: Judgement of Paris—9/29 to 10/1

Noble lords & fair ladies and all who perform chivalry & deeds of arms, know that on September 30th in the year Gregorian 2000 in Atlantia's Barony of Lochmere, there will be held a very great passage of arms. Ten defenders in the guise of heroes of Greece & Troy will maintain the field & they shall invite 30 to declare their allegiance to the principles of chivalry as represented by three goddesses, & engage in combat a plaisance or a outrance in the customary combat of the SCA at the barrier or in the open field, as shall please them in choice of arms on that day. Three goddesses shall be the lady judges of these noble deeds of arms and at the end of the day, all three ladies will choose one champion above all others who they deem to best display the virtues of chivalry. The noble champion shall then be given the choice of Pairs, to name which goddess is the fairest. Only those whose love of noble endeavor is great will be invited to take the field to prove by word & action the quality of their Chivalry & to strive for this dread prize.

The purpose of this event is to recreate a pageant-style tournament from Europe in the year 1425. Therefore all attendees are strongly encouraged to attire themselves in armor and clothing of the period (+/- 25 years), or as such persons might endeavor to simulate the costume of ancient Greece or Troy. In order to recreate the appropriate atmosphere, we ask that only period pavilions be used (cabin space is available). The tournament is invitation-only, with the 10 defenders selecting 30

Gentlefolk who would know more should seek out those who wear the badge of the golden apple, and from them can more be learned.
