 Baroness Johanna's Abode

Monthly Barony Meeting
 Baroness Brenna's Abode

From Frau Johanna von Sudeborn, Baroness of Storvik; warm greetings to Storvik, and all those who hear my words.

What a wondrous summer we have had! I extend thanks to all who have worked tirelessly to make Storvik gleam as the fairest of jewels in the Crown of Atlantia.

Our Majesties were pleased and impressed with the tokens we offered for the gift baskets at Pennsic. Lord Perrin says he lost count of the number of Storviki who participated in that project, but it seems almost all of us had a hand in the effort.

I am pleased with the numbers who supported Storvik & Atlantia at Pennsic - on the heavy field & rapier, archers, surgeons, artisans, & not least of all - those who arrived early at Pennsic to prepare our encampment; my heartfelt thanks to you.

Then, last night was our Post Pennsic Revel. It was a joy to hear the stories and songs, and I was, as always, delighted with the culinary skills of our cooks.

I shall soon leave for southern Atlantia to attend our Majesties, Logan & Isabel, for their Royal Hunt - should any wish to travel with me; I welcome your company on the long road.

Now fall is upon us - it is time for the harvest, but before the fields are cleared, there is still much to do. Rumor has reached me of threats to our northern borders, and I call upon you all to keep yourself prepared to defend Atlantia.

At the time of the Equinox, I charge you to gather and retake the Castle in Glen-gary. Though it lies in the Kingdom of Aethelmarc, this stronghold on our border cannot be allowed to host raiding parties- our fields and crops are in danger.

Then before first frost, There Majesties tell of a Kingdom Crusade, to prevent an attack upon Crown Lands. I shall journey north, to Bright Hills in mid-October, and I require the strong arm of Storvik to support me the defense of Atlantia from the outstretched arm of the Kingdom of the East.

To those of you who remain at home - keep our lands and stock safe, guard our gates, and welcome us home in victory-

Until we meet again - in the hall or on the field - I remain yours, in service to Atlantia, and Storvik.

Johanna

The Chronicler's Complaints

I got sick; my daughter had to start college; I couldn't attend Pennsic to take minutes and the nice person who took them for me couldn't get them to me in time; I'm sorry—so sue me!

Officers not in attendance: Herald, Chronicler, Exchequer, Minister of the Lists

Seneschal - Northern Regional Seneschals Meeting is held once a year to determine the dates of the events to be held the following year. Storvik successfully obtained it's first choices on all the events it plans on holding in the year 2003.

Marshal - There's money in the jar. How much is still to be determined.

Baroness - Encouraged attendance to the following upcoming Atlantian Events:

Land War in Stierbach - Stierbach could use the experienced help on Stoviki fighters

Coronation in Windmasters Hill - A long drive, but watching the coronation of Cuan and Padraigin will make it worth it (not to mention the A&S competition or the merchants.)

Siege of Glengary in Glengary, WV - Lots of good fighting with Aethelmearc that includes battling inside a real fort. Good fun for all.

Kingdoms Crusade in Bright Hills - A great event with something for everyone. Well attended by Merchants, Fighters and East/Atlantian Populace.

Workers & helpers are needed to do both set up & break down for the Post Pennsic Revel, and for working on the Baronial Tarps/Tents on Labor Day Weekend.

Minister of A&S - After a long and productive run, she will be stepping down, and is looking for a volunteer to take over the position. She is willing to train & help her replacement take over the job. Interested parties should contact her or the Baroness.

Chatelain/Silver Key - Nothing to Report

Web Minister - Nothing to Report

New Business - There was no new business.

Old Business - We still need a new site for Fighter Practice; better location with more parking, less expensive than current site (which runs apx. $1000/year).

Lochmere—Erntefest: September 21

Celebrate the end of the harvest with a day of chivalry & merrymaking. Join the Barony of Lochmere as we venture into the lands of the Holy Roman Empire. Men & women of Atlantia, help us show the Emperor that we cannot be bested on the fields of honor! For those of a gentler nature, enter the brewing competition, cheer your favorite dog in hound coursing, or test your luck in period German games.

Martial Events: Heavy fighters can participate in a variety of fighting formats, including a Landsknecht inspired tournament. Rapier fighters can defend the honor of their Fechtschul (fencing school) in a competition to the death. German and Austrian inspired shoots will challenge archers' wits and skills. Contact Lady Dealla Cohen (deallac@juno.com) for more details.

A&S: A brewing competition will be held. Documentation encouraged, but not required. Contact Lord Jehan Yves de Chateau Thierry (robmay@comcast.net).

Activities: Lord Michael Limner, proprietor of the Crab & Coin, challenges all to test their skill & luck in the gaming tournament. Lady Medb ingen Brain welcomes the children for storytelling, preparing non-alcoholic drinks, & other fun activities. Lady Mary Agnes invites dog owners to enjoy hound coursing. Direct questions, Michel von Schönsee at mholy1@umbc.edu or 410-636-5522 prior to 9pm.

Feast: Lady Teofilia Karaszkiwicz will prepare a delectable feast in the Germanic style. Dietary concerns—robmay@comcast.net or 301-490-1213 prior to 9pm.

Site: With the gracious assistance of Roxbury Mills, the event will occur at the Izaak Walton Lodge, 26430 Mullinix Mill Rd, Mt. Airy, Md. 21771. Site opens at 10am, closes promptly at 9pm. The event is discreetly wet; no original containers!

Fees:

On-Board Off-Board

Adult Member $12.00 $6.00

Adult Non-Member $15.00 $9.00

Children (6-17) $7.00 $4.00

Children five years of age & under are the guests of the Barony.

Please send reservations to: Mary Agnes Costello, 1408 Hunting Wood Road, Annapolis, MD 21403. Checks should be made out to the Barony of Lochmere, SCA Inc. Any questions regarding reservations should be addressed to her at: Costello53@aol.com or 443-482-9549 prior to 9pm. You MUST present your membership card at troll to be charged the member fee!
