Unto The Populace of Storvik do Corun and Brenna give greetings.

Well, a successful war was had by all. At Pennsic, many things happened to increase the value of the Barony of Storvik. First, the ranks of our nobility was increased, we send congratulations to Lady Camille Javina. Next, two fighters were inducted into the Order of the Silver Silke, good fortune to Lady Cassada and Lord Targue (nee Micheal of Storvik). The biggest Barony meeting (in attendance) we have had for a while (I suppose the beer had something to do with it. . .), and a goodly showing from Storvik in all areas was given. We wish to thank each and everyone of you for participating not just as fighters (most excellently done by the way!), but as water bearers, Chirurgeons, archers, and volunteers of many stripes and flavors. You honor us by your good deeds and participation.

We attended the Post Pennsic Revel and had a fine time! We wish to thank the autocrat, Lord Stephen of Cambion, his staff (especially them Badger wenches!), the grand storytellers and entertainers, but with the most gratitude for those who attended with dessert bribes in hand!

Speaking of entertainment, congratulations to Sir Halforc for his amusing "Honey you there?" tale of triumph, and for graciously agreeing to be next years Post Pennsic autocrat. (As we, in our greatness have reinstated the rule, "You win, You autocrat!") And also to the winner of the period dessert contest, MacGregor, for her delicious "Apple Tartys".

Please be aware that the Storvik event, "Challenge of the Fire Drake", scheduled on September 5 through 7, 1997, has been canceled, as the site was lost for that weekend. But, remember that on September 26-28, 1997, there is the joint Storvik/Sylvan Glen event, "Siege of Glengary" in Glengary, West Virginia. We hope to see all of you there!

One last note, as your Baron and Baroness, it is our honor and privilege to recognize individuals for Storvik. We find it necessary and right that all of us participate in that process as no one person can be everywhere and interested in all things. We would appreciate your written (and spoken) recommendations which we will take into consideration for such awards as we have to give. Further, this is also true for their Royal Majesties (may they live long and prosper). Anyone can write a letter of recommendation, be it for a Baronial or Kingdom level award/peerage.

Until Glengary, if not sooner,

In Service,
Brenna and Corun
Baronessa et Baro Que Storvik

Siege of Glengary

September 26 - 28

On a dark mist shrouded mountain in a land known as Aethelmearc a war drum thunders. Battle horns throughout the land take up this call to war. Once again the English dogs are on the prowl and only the blood of Scots will sate their hunger! To all who read these words or hear our plight, the shire of Sylvan Glen and the Barony of Storvik invite you to the Siege of Glengary, the first combat event in Kingdom of Aethelmearc. Come and choose sides; defend the mock "keep" & war chest from the marauding English, or kill the Scots, plunder the keep and split the spoils. Either way, it will be a glorious battle!

The site opens Friday, September 26, at 12 noon and closes at 5 PM Sunday, September 28, and is located at the beautiful Lazy A Campground in Glengary WV. A simple but hearty tavern style meal will be served to 175 pre-registered gentles on Saturday evening, complete with serving wenches & live entertainment.

The site has some limited electrical hook-ups (first come, first served), hot showers, and is completely wet (period containers only). Other activities include: court dancing, an A & S display, a brew tasting competition (pre-registered only), organized children's activities, a large bon-fire & dancing girls, a gambling den, assorted games, and rumor has it that Clan Drunken Badger is brewing up a party for Saturday night. There will also be archery competitions which include Royal Rounds and several novelty shoots. Light & Heavy combat archers for the siege are most welcome.

NOTE: East Kingdom rules will be in effect for the fighting activities.

All fighters are required to bring something useful to fighters to contribute to the war chest, such as a roll of duct tape, a handful of rivets, etc. Merchants are welcome and there is no merchant fee, though a small donation for prizes would be appreciated. Pets are allowed, but all animals must be on a leash or a tether.

Costs for the event: On-Board, pre-registered only: $12, Off Board: $10. Please make checks payable to the Barony of Storvik/SCA, Inc.

Note: Please specify if you are entering the brewing competition. Limit 30 brewers.

Hunt & Feast in Honor of Saint Sebastian

October 3 - 5

The crash of deer precedes the brassy call of the horns and the sounds of the beaters moving through the faire woods of this Shire. All who gather to watch the hunt will bear witness to the strength of arms and keenness of sight of the fair men and maids who meet to test their skill at bow. The Shire of Highland Foorde invites all target and combat archers, as well as all rapier fighters to test their skills against friend and foe alike in a full day of archery and rapier competition.

There will be royal rounds available throughout the day to test traditional archery skills. You may shoot more than once, as the highest score will be used. To challenge your accuracy, there will be shooting from a tower and a unique slit shoot. We also have a moving target shoot to test your patience, as well as your arms and eye. Each of these shoots will take place twice throughout the day, so there will be ample opportunity for you to get scored in every scenario. A roving range based on a hunt will keep you on the run as you (fictitiously) go in search of our feast's main course!! At the conclusion of the day, a shoot-off will take place to determine the overall victor. Many glorious prizes will be distributed at the end of the day to honor those who placed highly in each shoot.

To further test your skills, there will be combat archery with our rapier fighters. Our Rapier Marshall and his assistants will be available to explain and teach combat archery/rapier theory and how it works. He will be setting up a variety of scenarios challenging for both archers and rapier combatants!

The "catch of the hunt" will be prepared under the guidance of Baron Silver by the Highland Foorde Cooking Guild. The feast will consist of smoked and roasted game and fowl served with a variety of roasted vegetables and followed by a sumptuous dessert. Feast spaces are limited, advance reservations are highly recommended. Bards who wish to perform works at feast telling the story of St. Sebastian or works with archery as a central theme are asked to contact the autocrat.

The site is Hager House in Hagerstown, MD. The site opens 4 p.m. October 3 and closes noon October 5. The site is discreetly wet after sundown and absolutely NO PETS.

Cost for this event is $7.00 until September 15 for site and feast, $9.00 thereafter and at the gate. $5.00 for children 10 and under. $2.00 at gate for day trip without feast. For reservations, please send the society name(s) and mundane name(s), (and note if any are children) along with your check made out to: Shire of Highland Foorde/SCA, Inc. to: Magdalena Zaba (Marj Burger), 6402 Quinn Rd, Frederick, MD 21701
