Minutes of Monthly Business Meeting, February 8, 2009

In Attendance: Janina Krakowska (Baroness)
Rorik Fredericsson (Baron), Teleri the Well-Prepared (Exchequer), Orla Carey (Seneschal), Tirzah MacCrudden (Chatelaine), Kunigunde (Chronicler), Patricia of Trekai (Herald), Beatrix of Leipzig (MOAS), Joselin d'Outremer (Knight Marshal), Finn O'Donovan (Youth Combat Marshal), Segehart von Lietmeritz, Betryse Aradyn Glixout, Abel Bremme, Ysoria Baska, Sorchu Prechan

Old Business:

Meeting began at 7:08PM

Chatelaine:

3 newcomers hoping to come to events; they are interested in fighting and rapier. Newcomers' night is every other month, with the other months dedicated to sewing for newcomers. There is some loaner garb but not much. This Wednesday, Feb. 11th will be the next Newcomers' night.

Baron & Baroness:

At-home was a success. Baron & Baroness are going to Ymir.

Herald:

Not much in heraldry this month. There have been emails on the Heralds' group regarding the staff of office. Patricia wants to make a staff of office. It should not cost much but she will get an estimate. She is still looking for a deputy herald.

Exchequer:

Storvik had $6,497.64 at the end of the year, meaning a loss in change of worth of $170.53 over 2008. Teleri requests approval to buy a new file box. Beatrix made the motion for the purchase of a new file box, not to exceed $30. It was seconded by Tirzah and unanimously approved.

Meeting Minutes continued from page 1

Knight Marshal:

Attendance at Monday night fight practice has picked up. A new Kingdom Earl Marshal is being sworn in at Ymir.

Minister of Arts & Sciences:

A&S is going strong; there are a lot of activities going on most days of most weeks. Those people heading the nights are posting updates on the Yahoo group. There will be a new (Kingdom) A&S minister stepping up in the Spring. Everyone is getting ready for Kingdom A&S Festival.

Chronicler:

Running late on January's Drekkar. New news is that email permission letters will be acceptable with emailed submissions. (Chronicler should be contacted for the approved text).

Seneschal:

Regarding waterbearing, the BOD ruled that branches can provide drinks and can be reimbursed, but this is not an official position. The BOD will be looking for opinions of the populace regarding non-heavy fighters as peerage.

Coronation will be April 12 in Black Diamond. Valharic and Graciela will be co-head cooks.

Event Planning:

Performer's Revel:

April 18, pre-reg only. Acorn chronicler is sending out proofs, and the announcement is in.

Zoo demo:

Friday, May 8 at 6pm at Guppy Gala. The zoo will allow fighting but a marshal and MOL need to attend.

Saint Aiden's War College:

May 9 – Abel suggests a budget of $700 to cover a sideboard meal for lunch. Abel proposes a $12 fee, estimating 105 attendees for a total of $1260. The flyer has to go to the Acorn by the end of the month. This event will be Saturday only. There will be siege weapons. If heralds or rapier want space at the event, they are welcome to contact the autocrats. For rapier to happen, they will need to provide a rapier marshal.

Faerie Fest demo:

May 16-17, two-day event with cabins – must be pre-registered. Beatrix needs more information from the Faerie Fest organizers and is having trouble getting in touch with them.

Storvik Baronial Birthday:

September 12 – Tirzah will be head cook. William the Younger has volunteered to be Marshal In Charge unless someone else really wants to do it. Orla wants to invite Atlantian Royalty and suggests that someone invite them at coronation. Teleri suggests asking Count Randal Sinclair Hawkins to sponsor a poetry contest for poems about the history of the barony.

Other Old Business:

Tirzah is still looking for suitable new dishes.

Orla talked to Lizette at University about running an MOL class in Storvik, to be cross-posted to Lochmere, Ponte Alto and Bright Hills. Tirzah mentions that MOL is not an office the barony is required to fill.
