Upcoming Events

Their Royal Majesties will be at all the listed February events. Her Royal Highness will attend Kingdom Arts and Sciences.

Feb 10: Bright Hills Baronial Birthday (Manchester, MD)

A day of martial activities (weather permitting), several A&S competitions on a Book of Hours theme, and the traditional Hillfolk bardic bear pit!

Feb 17: Tournament of Love and Beauty (Leesburg, VA)

Ponte Alto's winter celebration of pageantry and chivalry. Based on the ballads and tournaments of the 15th century, this event celebrates both the warriors and the consorts who inspire them. There is A&S in addition to the main tournament.

Feb 23-25: Tournament of Ymir (Ellerbe, NC)

The theme is "The Norse Take Paris," and the event has many, many activities. See the website for details.

March 3: Kingdom Arts and Sciences Festival (Spotsylvania, VA)

If you have even the slightest interest in the arts or sciences, go to this! Artisans of all kinds will be showing their stuff, and they will be eager to talk to the interested about it. Great place to pick up another hobby for your collection.

A Letter from Their Excellencies of Storvik

Unto the populace do We send warm greetings!

It's been quite a year for all of us; we've done Demos and run Baronial, Kingdom, and Society level events, purchased a new gigantic tent for everyone to rest under, raided other Baronies, practiced atrophied skills and learned new ones. We had half a dozen scribal nights, found a collaborative way to make period shoes, dusted off our bows, created a new lyst-field and banners, and made the best of every mead tasting we could. Ilaria's 'bounty' has grown with the number of wordfame stories she's heard. Three Peers have been raised by the hand of our Monarchs. And better than all that – the Barony has grown in membership and knitted together in friendship.

This year we're going to host a brand-new event in April: Spring Faire. We have high hopes for this one, as it should knit together our neighboring Baronies while showing everyone the hospitality and awesomeness that is a camping event in the Spring. Of course, a bit later in the year we're hosting Novice Tourney and still later Battle on the Bay. I've even heard whispers that we might host another Crown Tourney... Our Progress of events this year will be pretty intense, like it was last year, but most of them are easily within 2 hours of us. We're also going to Pennsic War, and would love to see everyone at all these events so we can share, first hand, in your glories and accomplishments.

We're looking forward to the beauty and pageantry, comradery and laughter, fighting and raiding, creating, and probably more mead tasting, that the SCA, and Storvik in particular, has to offer. We'll be at many of the practices, A&S gatherings, and all of the At-homes (haha) – and we're hoping for another great year of friends and fellowship.

In service to you,
Baron Celric & Baroness Ilaria
Storvik

OYEZ! OYEZ!
Baronial News Highlights

New Location for Populace Meeting: Alas, poor Canterbury Riding. We knew it, Horatio. Join Storvik on the third Sunday of the month at METRO ACCESSIBLE Jason's Deli in College Park for the Populace Meeting. We will start to gather in the reserved back room at 6:30pm, have a dinner or a snack and socialize. Baronial business will be discussed at 7pm. Jason's Deli is in the strip mall at Knox Rd and Rt 1, down a block from weekly practice at St Andrew's. Parking is free on Sundays.

Performer's Revel is April 14: The Storvik tradition of gathering at the fortress of Caer Bear (the home of Master Igor and Mistress Fevronia, in Bowie, MD) for a day of songs, stories, poems, music, dance, and performance of all kinds continues! But this year will be different as a torch is passed. Lady Alicia of Cambion will prepare the feast, as Master Igor takes a long-deserved break. Heed the words of the lady of the hall:

PRACTICALITIES: By ancient custom, the revel will be held at the home of Baron Igor Bear and Baroness Fevronia Murometsa, The site is wet (as long as you are 21 or older) and very cheap! The hall opens at 10am, performances usually start around noon and continue until the last vestiges of energy run out. The only fee is $12 to cover the feast. New this year Lady Alicia of Cambion will follow in Baron Igor's footsteps and show us that cooking is indeed a performing art! [NOTE BENE: small children may find the need to sit quietly rather tedious, so parents may want to make appropriate childcare arrangements].

Site Restrictions: Um Don't be a turkey?

RESERVATIONS: Baroness Fevronia Murometsa (Kathleen Sobansky) 2204 Amber Meadows Drive, Bowie, MD 20716. Please note, this is a "Baronial Activity" rather than an official Kingdom Event and as such will not be found in the Acorn or on the Atlantia website

DIRECTIONS:

Take the Beltway/I-95, 495 to the MARYLAND exit for Route 50. Take Route 50 East, towards Annapolis. Go about 6 miles to the exit for Route 301. Take Route 301 South. Go down about 2 miles to Mitchellville Road (it is a traffic light). Turn right on Mitchellville. Go about 1/4 mile to Arbor Hill and turn right. Take Arbor Hill until it T-bones into Alderwood. Turn right on Alderwood, then take the first left onto Alstead, and an almost immediate right turn onto Amber Meadows Drive. We are 2204 Amber Meadows Drive, 3rd house on the left. Our phone is 301 390-4428.

A Letter from the Society Seneschal

To all Kingdom Seneschals,

I want you to alert all of your officers (Kingdom and local group officers) that DOXXING (i.e. posting personal information/contact information/political information about individuals) is a violation of the SCA Code of Conduct and the Anti-Bullying and Harassment policy. DOXXING is also against the law in California and a number of other jurisdictions; furthermore, DOXXING may likewise be actionable as an Invasion of Privacy which may result in a civil suit and money damages. Please convey to all of your officers at both the Kingdom and local group level that any officer or agent of the SCA found to be DOXXING is subject to termination from their office.

Additionally, I am instructing all Kingdom Seneschals and their deputies to obtain screen-shots of instances of DOXXING by any participant as this cannot be tolerated.

Everyone needs to contemplate the consequences of their actions. I know that there is a lot of anger and frustration over the events of the past week; however, as officers and agents of the SCA, we must act in accordance with the very foundations of this organization: courtesy, honor, chivalry and respect. We are and should be held to a higher standard and yet, there are allegations that at least one officer took part in DOXXING.

We have a responsibility to be leaders-- to be part of a solution and not part of the problem, even when the fog of division, discord and blame make it hard to see what is truly important to us all. It is times like these when we need to pull together, rally around what is good about our Society and lead by example. Even when the world appears bereft of courtesy, honor, chivalry and respect, we need to be an example of these virtues.

Very truly yours,

A.J. Pongratz
Vice President of Operations, SCA Inc.
Society Seneschal

Skol!

Wordfame for those in Storvik's hall

Raise voices for Emma West, inducted into the Order of the Pelican at Twelfth Night! Skol for Mistress Emma and her years of service!

Our baroness, Ilaria de Gandia, adds beads to her necklace when those in the barony are recognized for their deeds. But it was her own deeds that were recognized when she was inducted into the Order of the Pearl at Twelfth Night. Skol!

Although she is yet new to our lands, Margarite Honoree d'Cheneau is already gaining word-fame. She won the St. Anne's Guild of Clothiers Garb Runway Challenge at Twelfth Night!

Between the Beltways

Hamlet starts Jan 16 at the Shakespeare Theatre Company.

Chesapeake Shakespeare will be doing Red Velvet, which is a play about Ira Aldridge, an African American actor who was unexpectedly tapped to play Othello in 1833 in London. 1833 is obviously post-period, but the show is also about fashions in acting/interpreting the Shakespearean repertoire, which is something we wrestle with today.

The Freer/Sackler Gallery at the Smithsonian is hosting many interesting exhibits that fall within our period:

- Encountering the Buddha: Art and Practice across Asia opened this fall and remains until 2020.
- Promise of Paradise: Ancient Chinese Buddhist Sculpture focuses on 8th and 9th cen works.
- Resound: Ancient Bells of China is on view until 2020 as well.

Early Music DC lists medieval and Renaissance music happening in the area.

Beyond the Beltway

- A selection of the famous Terracotta Warriors are at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond through March 11.
- Michelangelo: Divine Draftsman and Designer at the Met Museum in NYC, through Feb 12. There are some other medieval and Renaissance exhibits there, as well.

Lady Alicia's Cookery Booke: Payne Ragoun

By Lady Alicia of Cambion

Greetings! February is here and I hope you are staying warm. It's that time of year when it feels like winter will never end. The skies are grey, the wind is biting, even the Servant's Hall is unusually subdued. Of course, that may also be because everyone is getting ready for February's one bright spot: Saint Valentine's Day, the holiday commemorating a 3rd century Roman martyr who has become the icon of romantic love, when people exchange love tokens and sweets, like Payne Ragoun.

Payne Ragoun, from the 14th Century "Forme of Cury" is a fudge-like honey-ginger candy, studded with pine nuts. The recipe is fairly simple:

.lxvj. Payne ragoun. Tak hony suger cypres & clarifye it to gider & boyle it with esye fyre & kepe it wel from brennyng & whan hit hath y boyled a whyle tak up a drope ther of with thy fynger & do hit in a litul water & loke yf it hong to gider & tak hit fro the fyre & do therto pynes the thryddendel & poudour ginger, & stere it to gyder tyl hit bigyne to thyk and cast it on a wete table, lesche hit & serve hit forth with fryed mete, on flesch day or on fysch dayes.

NOTE: This recipe includes boiling sugar, which can stick to and severely burn you. Always be careful when handling boiling sugar and children should always be carefully supervised.

If you do not happen to have pine nuts, you could also use another period nut, like almonds or walnuts. The nuts should be chopped into smaller pieces, approximately the size of a pine nut. If your pine nuts are not already toasted, you will want to toast them in a dry pan over low heat. Once they start to accumulate a golden color, remove from heat and remove from the pan. The pan will retain heat which may further burn the nuts.

Toasted Pine Nuts

In a 2-quart dutch oven, combine 2 cups sugar, ¼ cup honey and 2/3 cup water and bring to a boil over low to medium heat, to prevent burning. As contemporary sugar and honey is already clarified, you can skip that first step. Once the mixture begins to boil, allow it to cook until it has reached 240* (Soft Ball Stage).

Boiling Syrup at Soft Ball Stage

NOTE: Despite what the recipe says DO NOT PUT YOUR FINGER INTO THE BOILING SYRUP! I'm not sure why they include that direction in the recipe but DO NOT DO IT. As noted above, sugar will stick to you and burn. You can use a standard candy thermometer to check that your sugar is 240* or you can use A SPOON to drop some of the syrup into a little cold water (about 1" or so in a bowl or glass). The sugar should form a small, soft, sticky ball (almost like chewed gum). Remove the pan from heat and allow to cool about 5 minutes, add your ginger and pine nuts and begin to stir. The mixture will be very liquid at first, but after about 5 minutes or so, will begin to thicken and ultimately turn into a frosting-like paste.

Thickened Syrup after Approx 5 Min of Stirring

The paste will still be warm so again, be careful about burning yourself. Turn paste out onto parchment paper and form into an approximate square to be "lesche"-d (or sliced) into 1" (or so) cubes. Allow cubes to cool thoroughly.

Formed Square before Slicing

While Forme of Cury suggests serving this with fried meats, you can wrap the individual pieces in parchment or waxed paper and present to your loved one on Saint Valentine's Day. Or arrange it on a pretty plate to bring to a Valentine party. Or eat it all yourself, I won't say a word!

Payne Ragoun from Forme of Cury

2 c. White Sugar
¼ c Honey
2/3 C. Water
1/3 C Toasted Pine Nuts (or other chopped nuts)
1 tsp Ground Ginger

Combine sugar, honey, and water over low to medium heat until it boils to the soft ball stage (240*) Remove from heat, add ginger and nuts and stir until it thickens into a stiff paste. Turn out onto parchment paper and form into a square. Cut into 1" pieces and allow to cool. Store in sealed container.

Enjoy! Go forth and cook good food!

Do you have a pressing cookery question you'd like to have answered? Email Lady Alicia at ofnoimp@yahoo.com. Do you know, I'll be cooking feast for Performer's revel on April 14th! Mark your calendars now and I hope to serve you there!

A Letter from Duchess Kalisa Aleksandrovna

Greetings!

Pennsic is rapidly approaching and we are starting to work on some plans to make it an even better experience for any newcomers in attendance. We are reaching out to all of the Chatelaines who will be attending Pennsic, for we need your help to again implement our ideas.

We are going to once again have a dedicated Newcomers track of classes. It will be open and available to newcomers during Pennsic, at a location that is easy to find at the center of activity. Newcomers can take classes geared towards newer members and learning about the SCA and/or ask questions. Right now we are looking to first fill the time slots of 10 am – 5 pm from the Thursday of Peace Week through Wednesday of War Week (8/2/18 - 8/8/18) for Newcomer oriented classes. If we can fill those time slots, we can open up additional days and hours. I have already scheduled a couple of classes, and we are in the process of scheduling a Newcomer's Social/Ask a Chatelaine Q & A Session, but that leaves many time slots that we need to fill with classes. And that is where you all come in. We need your help to assist with teaching classes.

These classes will need to be registered through Pennsic University like any other class being taught at Pennsic, but on the special request/accommodation part of the form, you will need to fill in "Please schedule this as part of the "Newcomer Track" in the tent set aside for newcomers (tent 19)." We are specifically looking for classes geared toward individuals who are new to the SCA. This is less about offering classes on beginner A&S topics, because individuals can seek those types of classes out on their own if they are interested, and more about helping newcomers to get acclimated and interested in the SCA. For example, a couple of years ago there was a class specifically about Pennsic and what was offered there for newcomers (and it included a guided tour). Another great class could be a guide to how court works. These are just some suggestions, but we really do need your experience and excitement about the SCA to make this a success. We are also looking for classes specific to Chatelaines and training or discussion groups. They could also be booked in the same tent. So if you have any interest in teaching some classes designed to help Chatelaines, that would be fantastic!

We are also going to have a dedicated Newcomers' Point. Our goal is to have a place that is open and available to newcomers, where they can feel comfortable and learn more about the event and the SCA in general. Newcomers' Point will be a set place where Newcomers can come to ask questions or get information about the SCA and/or Pennsic. We will also be able to help Newcomers get involved with their local group after Pennsic. It will be located under the same tent as the Pennsic Watch, and we will need your help staffing the tent. Please consider having your Kingdom sponsor a day of volunteering at Newcomers Point. We will be posting more about volunteer opportunities as it gets closer.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns at chatelaine@sca.org. Let's work together to make this Pennsic amazingly special for newcomers!

A Letter about A&S Competitions at Ymir

Greetings,

Tournament of Ymir 43 Grand A&S Competition - Siege of Paris
hosted by Baroness Michel Almond de Champagne, OL. OP.

Are you inspired by the pillaging of the Vikings? Perhaps you are inspired by the ransoming of the French to get their lands back? In either case, your A&S entry will certainly inspire awe at the Tournament of Ymir 43 Grand A&S Competition - Siege of Paris!

Rules for entry.

1. The item that you enter must be inspired either by the Vikings or the French. Also "no silly English" Ha!
2. There will be 1 winner of the Grand Competition as determined by a populace vote which will be announced in court.
3. All entrants must meet up at a designated time/place (to be posted) to see their entry raffled off and to obtain an item from the entries. In other words, you will not go home with the item that you brought.
4. Raffle tickets will ONLY be given to people who enter an item in the contest. There is no cost for the tickets and only 1 per entry.
5. Registration forms and Raffle tickets will be available from Michel (location of the A&S hall will be announced).

This Grand Competition is about skill and luck. Will your item win the day? Will you be lucky enough to obtain your favorite item from the entries? Enter to find out!
