Baronial News Highlights

AUGUST Populace Meeting Canceled: We WILL meet in July; we WILL NOT meet in August. Extra time to do your Pennsic laundry!

Got Toys?: Toys sought for baronial children's largess. Donations to Their Excellencies.

Missing Glove: Lady Tibbie Crosier has lost a black quilted leather fencing glove; it may have escaped at Skewered! or at Storvik practice. If you've found it, please let Lady Tibbie know.

Volunteer at Pennsic: Sure, it's your vacation – it's everyone's vacation! Picking up just one two-hour shift helps out a lot. Bear water onto the battlefield (during the breaks, it's safe), welcome people to site, ride a golf cart with THE WATCH (I don't know why it's capitalized, but it is), help out at the Atlantian Children's Fete, staff Newcomer's Point (Atlantia Day, Monday August 6, is fully staffed, but you can sign up here to help at another times), or at lots of other places – try Information Point if you want to find out other ways you can help!

Pennsic Encampment: If you missed it under Events: Pre-registration has closed, so if you have not registered to camp with Storvik, it is too late. But do not despair! Atlantian Royal Encampment is open to all subjects of Atlantia, pre-registered or not, and it is directly across the street from Southwind/Storvik.

Special Pennsic Edition of the Drekkar: I will again put out a Special Pennsic Edition of the newsletter in about two weeks' time. Its main purpose is to help Storviki find each others' classes, tournaments, parties, and performances. Send items for inclusion to chronicler@storvik.atlantia.sca.org.

Skol!

Wordfame for those in Storvik's hall

Skol for Matilda and Margarite Honoree d'Cheneau, who heeded Sayyida Tala al-Zahra's call for help. The ladies retained at Novice Tournament, providing needed assistance to His Majesty and Their Excellencies.

(Retaining is a simple form of service that "mak[es]The Dream come alive for the rest of us," in Sayyida Tala's words. You add to the illusion that we are in the Middle Ages by temporarily becoming a courtier in service to the person for whom you are retaining. You follow them around, carrying whatever small but needful things they need – usually a cup and bag or basket containing a notepad, pen, favors, that sort of thing. You remind them to drink and eat. You might carry a parasol or umbrella, depending on the weather. You stay out of whatever business they are conducting, unless invited to offer your opinion, and you don't repeat any interesting tidbits that you might hear. That's all there is to it. It's a different and interesting way to see the Society.)

Thanks to Lord Carlyle Jamesson, who has completed four large crates of loaner armor!

Lady Sonya Flicker organized an expedition to visit the ambassadors from King Arthur's Camelot who came to the heart of Storvik recently. We hear that she wrung concessions from them, including one free horn of mead to everyone in attendance. Well done, Lady Sonya!

Skol for Dame Emma West, our Kingdom Chatelaine. It looks like Atlantia Day at Pennsic's Newcomer's Point is the first to be fully staffed!

Many thanks to Lady Kunigunde von Darmstat, our autocrat for Novice Tournament. The weather held out and it was a splendid event!

Congratulations to Astrid Spakona and Irena, our new baronial bards! We look forward to hearing your performances.

Skol also to Eadgyth the Archer, Storvik's new archery champion. She designed a beautiful set of archery targets for the event, and will represent the barony with grace and skill.

Congratulations also to Sayyida Tala al-Zahra, winner of the Novice Tournament Arts and Sciences competition. Sayyida Tala designed the tughra, or Turkish imperial seal, for Their Majesties Dietrich and Una.

And congratulations to Lord Carlyle Jamesson, winner of the Unbelt Tournament at Novice. Well and strongly fought!

There were many well-deserved awards given at Novice Tournament, which I was hoping to get from the court report since I (ulp) didn't write them down. Not wishing to give an incomplete record, I will report on them in the next issue.
