Summer is coming.

"Medallion with Saint Peter from an Icon Frame" (ca. 1100, Byzantine) You have to admit: St. Peter's got an impressive side-eye going on, there. I can almost hear him saying "Is it all clear yet?"

Greetings from their Excellencies!

This year certainly seems to be throwing everyone some curve-balls. First the Corona Virus and now unrest in the streets of the city comprising the majority of our Barony. Neither of these things is likely to abate anytime soon, and we worry that one will acerbate the other.

Whatever else you do, we urge you guys to continue to stay safe. You might see people out and about not wearing masks, but there's little harm in continuing to wear one. Remember that this game we play, if nothing else, teaches us that nobility and honor are internal concepts that can be applied to any situation, and you don't have to be ennobled to emulate the ideal that you see in your head.

Remember, too, that staying safe could mean in any arena – mental health is as important as physical health. There are online services for almost everything. Speaking of online things, we'd like to announce a Baronial (virtual) at-home, coming up soon (we need to confirm a date yet as of this writing). There was a whole lot of interest in it and even if only one person gets to talk at once, just seeing folks and talking to each other after months of semi-isolation was a welcome suggestion. There will be an announcement, so don't worry about missing it. And, of course, online classes for Atlantia university persist.

Finally, word fame. The SCA will be back, perhaps as soon as Battle on the Bay which, if it can safely happen, will also be Lochmere's investiture. That means Royals and a bunch of people that you've been missing will be in attendance. We anticipate parking problems; maybe welcome parking problems, to be honest. Along with the Baronial Officers we'll be helping our Seneschal make that call sometime this month and that will also be widely announced. People are doing things, even during this {gestures all around}, and we'd like to see their efforts recognized. We're certain the royals will welcome recommendations as well.

Storvik Ascendant,

Celric and Ilaria

Overheard and Unattributed

Said at the populace meeting; we won't say by whom ["Overheard" is kind of a weird concept in this context, right at the moment. Sorry about that.]

For Beginners

by Mistress Teleri Barod

How hard it is when first the Muse's call
Resounds, clear-voiced, in the awakened mind;
All starting efforts seem too mean and small
No true reflection of the soul's design.
Each fault, each flaw, and every curs'd mistake
Cavort before the eyes like maenads wild;
The heart sings high, but hands refuse to make
Those visions breathe; ill-formed, they lie reviled.
But Perseverance and her handmaid, Toil
Will do faithful labor, day into night,
On those works that seem disfigured and spoiled
And bit by bit, they two make all things right;
Withstand the stings of Imperfection's darts
And someday you will master all your arts.

New Business:

- Crown Tournament. Do we want to offer Battle on the Bay for Crown Tourney? Emma can ask. No real objections, but health concerns are still there. War of the Wings might be more likely, though. No Crown Tourney until all states opened up. Royal stuff is happening online (like investitures). We're comfortable offering BotB for CT.
- Unevent: can we do digital Unevent? Emma noted there would have to be serious restrictions. She'll bring it up. I suggested that we break it out for Order meetings / baronial officers; Baron pointed out that video meetings for baronial officers might be more inclusive.
- Patty noted that dancers are least likely to be able to social distance, so they're likely to be coming back last. Also: if the Church lets us back in August, will there be fighter/dance practice? Seneschal says maybe.

Meeting adjourned 8:02 PM. The next meeting will be via Zoom, on June 21st, 7-9 PM.
